Letter from the Chairman of Shanxi Donghui Group

Dear Inova Shareholder,

On behalf of the board of directors of Shanxi Donghui Group, I am pleased to present to you a cash offer (Offer) to acquire all Your Shares in Inova Resources Limited (Inova). The Offer is being made to you by Shanxi Donghui, a private mining company incorporated in the People's Republic of China. If and to the extent you accept our Offer you will be paid $0.22 cash for each Share, subject to our Offer becoming unconditional.

The Offer provides highly attractive value for Inova Shareholders and is at a substantial premium to the recent and historical trading price of Inova shares. The Offer price of $0.22 for each Inova Share represents:

- a 29% premium to $0.170 per share, Inova's closing price on ASX on 20 August 2013 (the last trading day before the announcement of the Offer was made);
- a 23% premium to $0.179 per share, Inova's one month volume-weighted average price (VWAP) on ASX as at 20 August 2013; and
- a 55% premium to $0.142 per share, Inova's three month VWAP on ASX as at 20 August 2013.

Shanxi Donghui has entered into a pre-bid acceptance deed with Turquoise Hill Resources Ltd (Turquoise Hill) in relation to 14.9% (108,502,084) of Inova shares (on an undiluted basis). Turquoise Hill, via its wholly owned subsidiary IAL Holdings Singapore Pte Ltd (IAL), is Inova's largest Shareholder holding approximately 56.2% of Inova Shares on issue. Turquoise Hill has indicated it intends to accept Shanxi Donghui's offer in respect of all of the other Inova shares held by IAL in the absence of a superior proposal, but it does not intend to do so before IAL accepts in respect of the 108,502,048 Inova shares the subject of the pre-bid acceptance deed. Further details of the pre-bid acceptance deed are set out in the Bidders Statement

The Offer allows Inova Shareholders to eliminate the significant risk, funding uncertainty and the potential for further equity dilution associated with the development of Inova's assets in consideration for an attractive cash payment now. We believe Inova's Osborne, Merlin and Mt Elliot/Swan projects are capital intensive and their development will require a substantial commitment of resources and capital.

Details of the Offer, including its terms, are set out in this Bidder's Statement. I encourage you to read this Bidder's Statement carefully and in full, and then to accept the Offer as soon as possible. The Offer is open for your acceptance until 7.00pm (Melbourne time) on 14 October 2013, unless otherwise extended.

To accept the Offer, you should follow the instructions in this Bidder's Statement and on the enclosed Acceptance Form.

If you have any questions about the Offer, please call the Offer information line on 1300 354 618 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 3 9415 4050 (for callers from outside Australia) between 9.00am and 5.00pm Monday to Friday (Melbourne time) during the Offer Period.

We look forward to receiving your favourable consideration of our Offer.

Yours sincerely

Ya Ping Zhang
Chairman
Shanxi Donghui Group

Conditions

The Offer is subject to certain conditions including the following conditions:

- minimum acceptance for at least 51% of Inova Shares;
- Inova not entering into any material agreements, acquisitions, sales or new commitments;
- no “prescribed occurrences” occurring in relation to Inova;
- no person being entitled to exercise any material “change of control” rights in relation to Inova as a result of the Offer; and
- FIRB and Chinese regulatory approval.

Full details of all of the conditions are set out in section 12.8 of this Bidder’s Statement.

2 Why you should accept the Offer

1. Inova's major Shareholder Turquoise Hill has entered into a pre bid acceptance deed with Shanxi Donghui.

Turquoise Hill is Inova's largest Shareholder holding approximately 56.2% of Inova Shares on issue, through its wholly owned subsidiary, IAL. On 21 August 2013 Turquoise Hill and Shanxi Donghui entered into a Pre-Bid Acceptance Deed (Pre-Bid Agreement) for part of Turquoise Hill's shares representing 14.9% of Inova Shares on issue (being 108,502,084 Shares) (Pre-Bid Agreement Shares). Under the Pre-Bid Agreement:

- (a) Turquoise Hill agrees to procure that IAL accepts the Offer in respect of the Pre-Bid Agreement Shares by not later than 5 business days after the day on which Shanxi Donghui declares or announces that (except for the 51% minimum ownership condition) all of the conditions to the Offer have been satisfied or waived (except that IAL will not be obliged to accept the Offer any earlier than 2 weeks after the Offer); and
- (b) IAL is not required to accept the Offer if, prior to it accepting the Offer, a Superior Third Party Offer is publicly announced or made which is not at least matched by Shanxi Donghui within 5 business days.

Turquoise Hill has advised Inova that, unless a superior proposal emerges, it intends to procure that IAL accept the Offer for all of the other Shares it holds in Inova but it does not intend to do so before IAL accepts for the Pre-Bid Agreement Shares.

2. The Offer price represents an attractive premium to recent weighted average trading prices on the ASX.

The Offer price of $0.22 per Inova Share represents an attractive premium relative to Inova's trading prices on the ASX prior to Shanxi Donghui's announcement of the Offer. The graph below illustrates the premium relative to recent trading in Inova Shares on the ASX over a number of time periods.

Premium reflected in the $0.22 cash offer per Inova Share

Note: VWAP refers to the volume weighted average price over the indicated period. All premiums and VWAP's have been calculated up until close of trade on 20 August 2013 (1 day prior to Shanxi Donghui's announcement of the Offer).

Source: This trading data was sourced from IRESS. IRESS has not consented to the use of the references to this trading data in this Bidder's Statement.

3. The Offer allows Inova Shareholders to eliminate the significant risk associated with the development of Inova's assets and funding uncertainties in exchange for an attractive cash payment now.

The Offer delivers certain value through 100% cash consideration and should be compared to the external and company specific risks and uncertainties to which Inova may be subject that could affect the trading price of Inova Shares.

Inova's external risks may include, but are not limited to:

- the future funding of Inova;
- Inova's Osborne, Merlin and Mt Elliot/Swan projects are capital intensive and their development will require a substantial commitment of resources and capital;
- exploring and proving up Inova's exploration tenements;
- being able to gain access to an appropriately skilled workforce at a reasonable cost to enable development of Inova's development projects;
- the risk of downturns in the economies in which Inova operates and/or intends to supply commodities;
- the risk of changes in interest rates, commodity prices (particularly copper and molybdenum), foreign exchange risk, employment rates and changes in government policy which may impact potential sales and operating profits; and
- the risk of an adverse change in the competitive landscape.

In addition, Shanxi Donghui believes that Inova's significant capital requirements will contribute to significant continued volatility in the trading price of Your Shares if the Offer is not successful.

4. You will be paid cash for Accepted Shares.

By accepting the Offer you will be paid $0.22 cash per Accepted Share (subject to the conditions of the Offer being satisfied or waived).

5. You will incur no brokerage charges.

If Your Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to Shanxi Donghui, you will not incur any brokerage charges by accepting the Offer, whereas you may incur brokerage costs and GST on those costs if you choose to sell Your Shares on the market.

If Your Shares are held in a CHESS Holding or you hold Your Shares through a bank, custodian or other nominee, you should ask your Controlling Participant or the bank, custodian or other nominee whether it will charge any transaction fees or service charges in connection with your acceptance of the Offer.

6. Inova's Share price is likely to trade at a discount to the Offer price of $0.22 if the Offer is not successful.

If Shanxi Donghui's Offer does not proceed, and no other takeover offers are made for Inova Shares, it is likely that Inova Shares would continue to trade at a discount to the Offer price of $0.22.

7. If a substantial number of other Shareholders accept the Offer, the remaining liquidity of Inova may become less liquid or less active.

The market for your Inova Shares may become less liquid or less active, which may adversely impact the trading value of Inova Shares as well as the ability of remaining Inova Shareholders to sell their Shares. If there is limited spread or volume in the Inova Shares remaining at the end of the Offer Period, Shanxi Donghui may consider requesting removal of Inova from the official lists of the ASX and the TSX. Each of the ASX and TSX require listed entities to maintain a sufficient spread of Shareholders to ensure that there is an orderly and liquid market in the listed entity's shares. The ASX and the TSX have power to suspend Inova Shares from quotation/trading if the spread requirement is not met.

8. The Shanxi Donghui Offer is the only offer available for your Inova Shares.

Inova has informed Shanxi Donghui that at the date of this Bidder's Statement, Shanxi Donghui's Offer was the only takeover offer that had been made for your Inova Shares and Inova had not received any formal and binding alternative approach from any party interested in making a Superior Third Party Offer. In Shanxi Donghui's view, it is unlikely that such a Superior Third Party Offer will materialise.

3 How to accept the Offer

You can accept the Offer for all or part of Your Shares.

How to accept the Offer will depend on whether you hold Your Shares in an Issuer Sponsored Holding (individually held) or a CHES Holding (held through an intermediary).

Issuer sponsored Shareholders

To accept the Offer, you must complete and sign the Acceptance Form enclosed with this Bidder’s Statement and return it to the address specified on the form so that it is received before the Offer closes. Acceptance Forms must be received with original signatures - copies or electronic forms of Acceptance Forms will not be accepted by Shanxi Donghui.

CHES Shareholders

If there is an “X” appearing next to your holder number on the enclosed Acceptance Form, then Your Shares are held in a CHES Holding.

To accept the Offer, you may either:

- complete and sign the Acceptance Form enclosed with this Bidder’s Statement and return it to the address specified on the form; or
- instruct your Controlling Participant (usually your Stockbroker) to accept the Offer on your behalf, before the Offer closes.

Canadian Shareholders

If Your Shares are held on the Canadian sub or branch register of Inova, including through a nominee or depositary identified on such register, you will need to move Your Shares to an Issuer Sponsored Holding or CHES holding and then accept the Offer as set out in section 12.3.

Arrangements have not been made for acceptances to be made through CDS Clearing and Depositary Services Inc., the settlement agency for trades on the TSX, nor through physical (paper) acceptance procedures that sometimes apply for TSX listed companies. Acceptances of the Offer can only be made as described in this Bidder’s Statement.

Canadian Shareholders should contact their broker, financial advisor or call the Offer Information Line (details below) for assistance with respect to acceptance of the Offer.

Full details on how to accept the Offer are set out in section 12.3 of this Bidder’s Statement. However, if Shanxi Donghui has relevant interests in at least 90% of the Shares during or at the end of the Offer Period, it may seek to acquire (or cancel) any outstanding Performance Rights or, if possible, to seek to compulsorily acquire (or cancel) any outstanding Performance Rights under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act.

8 Funding

8.1 Total cash consideration

The Offer is a 100% cash offer.

The maximum amount of cash that Shanxi Donghui would be required to pay under the Offer if acceptances are received in respect of all the Shares on issue as at the date of this Bidder's Statement would be approximately $160 million.

In addition, if holders of all Performance Rights on issue at the date of this Bidder's Statement exercise those Performance Rights so as to convert them into Shares and accept the Offer in relation to those Shares, then the additional consideration payable in respect of the additional Shares would be approximately $1.2 million.

8.2 Overview of funding arrangements

The necessary funds to pay the consideration for acquisition of the Shares pursuant to the Offer will be met through Shanxi Donghui's existing cash reserves.

In aggregate, the funds available from Shanxi Donghui's existing cash reserves are more than sufficient to fund the maximum consideration payable pursuant to the Offer and all associated transaction costs.

Shanxi Donghui is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming the view, and it holds the view, that it will be able to pay the consideration required for the acquisition of Shares pursuant to the Offer to satisfy its obligations under the Offer.

The Offer is not subject to any financing conditions. However, one of the conditions to the Offer (refer section 12.8) requires Shanxi Donghui to obtain Chinese regulatory consent for the payment of the consideration for Shares under the Offer and transfer of that consideration out of China. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement Shanxi Donghui has applied for such approval and has no reason to believe that such approval will be denied.

8.3 Particulars of cash reserves⁵

As at the date of the Offer, Shanxi Donghui had cash reserves of approximately $200 million (1.1 billion Chinese Renminbi) on deposit with the following Chinese and international financial institutions:

- (a) China Minsheng Banking Group; and
- (b) Shanghai Pudong Development Bank.

Shanxi Donghui intends to pay the consideration for the Shares under the Offer from these accounts. In addition, these cash reserves are not subject to any security interest or any other arrangement which will materially affect Shanxi Donghui's ability to use them.

Having had regard to the matters set out above, Shanxi Donghui is of the opinion that it has a reasonable basis for forming, and it holds, the view that it will be able to adequately fund the Offer through its existing cash reserves.

⁵ All Australian dollars in this section 8 are calculated utilising an exchange rate of AUD/CNY 5.5561 as at 20 August 2013 closing rate as reported by Bloomberg.

9 Shanxi Donghui's intentions in relation to Inova

9.1 Introduction

This section 9 sets out Shanxi Donghui's intentions in relation to the following:

- the continuation of the business of Inova;
- any major changes to the business of Inova and any redeployment of the fixed assets of Inova; and
- the future employment of the present employees of Inova.

9.2 Review

The intentions set out in this section 9 have been formed on the basis of facts and information concerning Inova and the general business environment which are known to Shanxi Donghui and prevailing market conditions at the time of preparing this Bidder's Statement.

Shanxi Donghui and its advisers have reviewed information that is publicly available concerning Inova and its current business, operations, assets and plans for the future.

At the conclusion of the Offer Period, Shanxi Donghui will, to the extent to which it is able and assuming that it has been successful with its Offer, conduct a review of Inova and its operations, assets, liabilities, structure and employees following which it will, as required, review its intentions as set out in this section 9.

Final decisions will only be reached by Shanxi Donghui after that review and in light of circumstances at the relevant time. Accordingly, the statements set out in this section are statements of current intention only and may change as new information becomes available or circumstances change, and the statements in this section should be read in this context.

9.3 Intentions if Shanxi Donghui acquires a relevant interest in 90% or more of Shares on issue

This section 9.3 sets out Shanxi Donghui's current intentions if at the end of the Offer Period it has relevant interests in 90% or more of the Shares and is entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of the outstanding Shares.

(a) Compulsory acquisition

If it becomes entitled to do so under the Corporations Act, Shanxi Donghui intends to proceed with compulsory acquisition in accordance with the Corporations Act, including any Shares which are issued after the close of the Offer and as a result of the exercise of Performance Rights (see section 7.5).

(b) Directors

Shanxi Donghui intends to replace all members of the Inova Board with nominees of Shanxi Donghui. The identity of the Shanxi Donghui nominees has not yet been determined by Shanxi Donghui and will depend upon the relevant circumstances at the time.

(c) ASX/TSX listing

At the conclusion of the compulsory acquisition process, Shanxi Donghui intends to arrange for Inova to be removed from the official list of the ASX and the Inova Shares to be delisted from the TSX.

(d) Integration and operations

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, Shanxi Donghui has conducted a due diligence investigation based predominantly on publically available information and certain confidential information about Inova provided by Inova. Consequently, Shanxi Donghui's knowledge of the assets and operations of Inova is limited to public information and any confidential information provided by Inova. Following the close of the Offer, if Shanxi Donghui acquires all of the Inova Shares, Shanxi Donghui intends to conduct a thorough and broad-based general review of Inova's corporate structure, assets, businesses, personnel and operations. This review will apply quantitative and qualitative factors to evaluate Inova's business with a view to maximising Inova's success and identifying opportunities to enhance the performance of, and expand, the enlarged group's business.

While Shanxi Donghui does not have any specific intentions in relation to this review or its outcomes, its current expectation is that the review will focus on:

- analysing the work done to date by Inova and determining the economic viability of all of Inova's current and potential projects;
- identifying profit improvement measures involving a wide range of initiatives including (but not limited to) overhead cost reductions and potential marketing arrangements for its commodities;
- identifying opportunities to minimise duplication in operational areas of the Shanxi Donghui and Inova;
- determine the most efficient management structure in the merged Shanxi Donghui/Inova group; and
- improving capital management through the implementation of common systems across the businesses of Shanxi Donghui and Inova.

(e) (e) Capital Raising

Shanxi Donghui considers that Inova is required to incur significant capital expenditure in order to progress its current projects, including without limitation the Merlin and Mt Elliott/Swan projects. Shanxi Donghui will assess the optimal funding for these developments including whether or not to bring in third party equity and/or debt finance.

(f) Divestment

Shanxi Donghui has no present intention to sell any specific part of the business or fixed assets of Inova or to downsize any specific part of the Inova business.

(g) Employees

The status of employees will be considered as part of the review outlined in section 9.3(d). Shanxi Donghui's general policy is to fill all positions in the company with the best qualified personnel.

9.4 Intentions if Shanxi Donghui acquires a relevant interest in at least 51% but less than 90% of Shares on issue

This section 9.4 sets out Shanxi Donghui's current intentions if, at the end of the Offer Period, Shanxi Donghui has a relevant interest in less than 90% but more than 51% of the Shares.

(a) Active major Shareholder

Subject to the Corporations Act, Shanxi Donghui intends to become actively involved in determining and controlling the strategic direction of the business of Inova. Additionally, if Shanxi Donghui receives acceptances under the Offer that bring its shareholding to more than 75% of Inova Shares, it will be in a position to cast the votes required to determine the outcome of a “special resolution” at a meeting of Inova members. This would enable it to pass resolutions, for example, to amend the Inova constitution.

(b) Directors

If, at the end of the Offer Period, Shanxi Donghui is the majority Shareholder in Inova, it intends (subject to the formal requirements of the Corporations Act and of the Inova constitution) to procure the appointment of a majority of Shanxi Donghui nominees to the Inova Board so that the proportion of Shanxi Donghui nominees is broadly in line with Shanxi Donghui's voting power in Inova.

The identity of such nominee directors has not yet been determined, but nominees will be selected to bring financial, corporate advisory, technical and managerial expertise to the Inova Board. The Shanxi Donghui nominees will ensure that they comply with their fiduciary duties and obligations as directors of Inova, in particular in dealing with any potential conflicts of interest.

(c) ASX/TSX listing

If there is a limited spread or volume of Inova Shareholders remaining following completion of the Offer, Shanxi Donghui may seek to procure the removal of Inova from the official lists of the ASX and the delisting of Inova Shares from the TSX.

Whether Shanxi Donghui proceeds to seek to have Inova removed from the official list of the ASX will depend upon, among other things, its total voting power in Inova following the close of the Offer.

If Inova continues to be listed on ASX/TSX the trading liquidity of Inova Shares may be materially diminished given the reduced number of Inova Shares held by Shareholders other than Shanxi Donghui. As a result, certain investors may no longer wish to hold Inova Shares as part of their investment portfolios, which may also have a negative impact on the price of Inova Shares. Accordingly, the market for Inova Shares may become significantly less liquid or active.

(d) Operations, assets and employees

Shanxi Donghui will seek to procure that Inova's new board of directors implement the strategies and goals outlined in section 9.3 of this Bidder's Statement to the extent possible and appropriate in the circumstances.

(e) Dividends

It is Shanxi Donghui's current intention to continue Inova's present policy of not declaring dividends at least until the establishment of a long term profit stream which is capable of supporting both capital expenditure and dividend distribution.

(f) Capital Raising

Shanxi Donghui considers that Inova is required to incur significant capital expenditure in order to progress its current projects, including without limitation the Merlin and Mt Elliott/Swan projects. No decision has been made on how this funding will be obtained. Shanxi Donghui will assess the optimal funding for these developments including whether or not to bring in third party equity and/or debt finance.

(g) Acquire additional Shares

Shanxi may determine whether to acquire additional Shares under the "creep" provisions of the Corporations Act. In summary, these provisions would allow Shanxi Donghui (and its associates) to acquire up to 3% of Inova's Shares every 6 months. Shanxi Donghui has not decided whether it will acquire Inova Shares under the "creep" provisions, as that will be dependent on, amongst other things, the extent of the voting power of Shanxi Donghui in Inova and Inova's position at the time.

(h) Limitations in giving effect to intentions

The ability of Shanxi Donghui to implement the intentions set out in this section 9.4 will be subject to the legal obligation of Inova directors to have regard to the interests of Inova and all Inova Shareholders and the requirements of the Corporations Act, any applicable ASX/TSX Listing Rules and Canadian securities laws relating to transactions between related parties. These may limit or modify the implementation of the intentions outlined above.

Also, as a result of those requirements, the approval of minority Inova Shareholders may be required for the implementation of some of the intentions outlined above.

9.5 Intentions on obtaining less than 50% of Inova's Shares

If Shanxi Donghui decides to waive the 51% minimum acceptance condition and does not obtain a relevant interest in at least 50.1% of Inova's Shares, then Shanxi Donghui intends to reassess its position with respect to Inova in light of the outcome of the Offer and Inova's position at that time.

9.6 Intentions generally

Subject to the above, Shanxi Donghui intends, on the basis of the facts and information concerning Inova which are known to it:

- generally continue the business of Inova;
- not make any major changes to the business of Inova nor to redeploy any of the fixed assets of Inova; and
- continue the employment of Inova's present employees.

10 Taxation considerations

10.1 Introduction

The following is an outline of the principal Australian income tax consequences generally applicable to an Australian resident Inova Shareholder who disposes of Shares by accepting the Offer. The comments set out below are also relevant to those Australian resident Inova Shareholders who do not accept the Offer if Shanxi Donghui proceeds to compulsorily acquire their Shares following Shanxi Donghui acquiring a relevant interest in at least 90% of Shares on issue at any time during the Offer Period.

This outline reflects the current provisions of the Income Tax Assessment Act 1936 (Cth) and the Income Tax Assessment Act 1997 (Cth) and the regulations made under those acts, taking into account Shanxi Donghui's understanding of the current administrative practices of the Australian Taxation Office (ATO). The outline does not otherwise take into account or anticipate changes in the law, whether by way of judicial decision or legislative action, nor does it take into account tax legislation of countries apart from Australia.

The following outline is not exhaustive of all possible Australian income tax considerations that could apply to particular resident Inova Shareholders. In particular, the summary is only relevant to those resident Inova Shareholders who hold their shares as capital assets for the purposes of investment. This tax outline does not address all tax considerations applicable to non-resident Inova Shareholders and Inova Shareholders that may be subject to special tax rules, such as banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation funds, dealers in securities or Inova Shareholders who acquired their Shares as part of an employee share scheme operated by Inova (if any).

Nothing in this section 10 addresses the Canadian tax implications of an Inova Shareholder who is a resident of Canada, accepting or rejecting the Offer or if their Shares are compulsorily acquired by Shanxi Donghui under Chapter 6A of the Corporations Act. Canadian resident Inova Shareholders are urged to obtain their own Canadian tax advice.

This outline does not constitute tax advice. It is recommended that each Inova Shareholder consult their own tax adviser regarding the consequences of acquiring, holding or disposing of their Shares in light of current tax laws and their particular circumstances.

10.2 Taxation on the disposal of Shares

If you accept the Offer, you will be treated as having disposed of the Accepted Shares for tax purposes.

10.3 Australian resident Inova Shareholders – Capital Gains Tax (CGT) Shares

You would realise a capital gain on a Share to the extent that the amount you receive (or that you will receive) for the disposal of that Share is more than the cost base of that Share. You should realise a capital loss on a Share to the extent that the amount you receive (or that you will receive) for the disposal of that Share is less than the reduced cost base of that Share. Capital losses can usually only be offset against capital gains you realise in the same income year or in later income years.

Broadly, the cost base of a Share is the total of the amount you paid for the Share and your acquisition and disposal costs in respect of that Share. However, there are circumstances where this may not be the case and we recommend that you speak to your tax adviser to confirm the cost base of your Shares. The reduced cost base of a Share is usually determined in a similar, but not identical, manner.

Any net capital gain in respect of an income year would be included in your assessable income for that income year. Broadly, your net capital gain in respect of an income year would be calculated by aggregating all of your capital gains realised in respect of that income year and reducing that amount by your capital losses realised in that income year and any net capital losses from prior years that can be utilised. That amount may be further reduced by other concessions, particularly under the discount CGT rules.

Inova Shareholders who are individuals, trusts or complying superannuation funds may be eligible for discount capital gains treatment in respect of a Share if they have held that Share for more than 12 months at the time they are taken to have disposed of their Share. Companies are not eligible for discount capital gains treatment.

The above comments do not apply to you if you buy and sell shares in the course of a business, or if you acquired the Shares for resale at a profit. In those cases, any gain will generally be taxed as ordinary income. You should seek your own advice.

Inova Shareholders should seek their own advice as to the tax consequences of disposing of their Shares, in particular as to the availability of the discount capital gains tax concession.

10.4 Stamp duty

Any stamp duty payable on the transfer of Shares to Shanxi Donghui pursuant to the Offer will be paid by Shanxi Donghui.

11 Other material information

11.1 Shares issued on exercise of Performance Rights

The Offer extends to Shares that are issued on the exercise of Performance Rights during the period from the Register Date to the end of the Offer Period.

Shanxi Donghui does not presently intend to make any separate offer to acquire (or cancel) the Performance Rights but reserves the right to do so. However, if Shanxi Donghui has relevant interests in at least 90% of the Shares during or at the end of the Offer Period, it may seek to acquire (or cancel) any outstanding Performance Rights or, if possible, to seek to compulsorily acquire (or cancel) any outstanding Performance Rights under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act.

Shanxi Donghui may consider making separate offers to acquire (or cancel) the Performance Rights depending on its voting power in Inova and other relevant circumstances following the end of the Offer Period.

11.2 Date for determining holders of Shares

For the purposes of section 633 of the Corporations Act, the date for determining the persons to whom information is to be sent under items 6 and 12 of subsection 633(1) is the Register Date.

11.3 On-market acquisitions

Subject to the requirements of the Corporations Act, Shanxi Donghui may acquire Shares on-market at prices up to the Offer price during normal trading on ASX. Inova Shareholders who sell their Shares on ASX should be mindful that trades on the ASX settle on a T+3 settlement basis (being three Trading Days after the date of the trade).

Inova Shareholders who sell their Shares on ASX/TSX cannot subsequently accept the Offer in respect of Shares sold on ASX/TSX. Additionally, Inova Shareholders who sell their Shares on ASX/TSX may incur brokerage charges which they would not incur if their Shares are registered in their name, they accepted the Offer and they deliver their Shares directly to Shanxi Donghui.

11.4 Consents

This Bidder's Statement contains references to, statements made by, and/or statements said to be based on statements made by Shanxi Donghui each of whom has consented to the inclusion of:

- each reference to its name;
- each statement it has made; and
- each statement which is said to be based on a statement it has made, in the form and context in which each reference or statement (as applicable) appears and has not withdrawn that consent as at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

Sapphire and PwC have each acted as financial advisers and Thomsons has acted as legal adviser to Shanxi Donghui and Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited has acted as share registrar for Shanxi Donghui in relation to the Offer. Each of Sapphire, PwC, Thomsons and Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited has consented to be named in this Bidder's Statement in the form and context in which it is named and has not withdrawn that consent as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, but should not be regarded as authorising the issue of this Bidder's Statement or any statements in it.

11.5 ASIC modifications and exemptions

ASIC has published various "class order" instruments providing for modifications and exemptions that apply generally to all persons, including Shanxi Donghui, in relation to the operation of Chapter 6 of the Corporations Act.

Among others, Shanxi Donghui has relied on the modification of section 617(2) Corporations Act as set out in ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521] (Takeover bids) to extend the Offer to Inova Shares issued on exercise or vesting of Performance Rights from the Register Date until the end of the Offer Period and the modification to section 636(3) Corporations Act set out in ASIC Class Order [CO 07/429] (Consent to quote: Citing credit ratings agencies, trading data and geological reports in takeovers) to include in this Bidder's Statement, without obtaining specific consents, the use of trading data relating to trading on a prescribed financial market (such as ASX/TSX) in a Bidder's Statement.

In addition, as permitted by ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521] this Bidder's Statement may include references to certain statements which are made or based on statements made in documents lodged with ASIC or the ASX. Pursuant to ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521], consent of the relevant person is not required for the inclusion of statements in this Bidders Statement.

As required under ASIC Class Order [CO 13/521], if you would like to receive a copy of any of those documents, or the relevant parts of the documents containing the statements (free of charge) during the Offer Period, please contact the Offer Information Line on 1300 354 618 (toll-free within Australia) or +61 3 9415 4050 (for callers from outside Australia) between 9.00am and 5.00pm (Melbourne time) Monday to Friday during the Offer Period.

Shanxi Donghui has not obtained from ASIC any modifications or exemptions from the Corporations Act in relation to the Offer.

11.6 Social security and superannuation implications of the Offer

Acceptance of the Offer may have implications under your superannuation arrangements or on your social security entitlements. If in any doubt, you should seek specialist financial advice.

11.7 Foreign investment approval

Shanxi Donghui is a foreign person under the FATA because it is owned by foreign persons. Accordingly, the Offer is subject to the approval or non-objection of the Treasurer of the Commonwealth of Australia, who receives advice from Foreign Investment Review Board (FIRB), under the FATA. Approval will not be given to the Offer if the Treasurer, on advice from FIRB, considers that the result of the acquisition of Shares by Shanxi Donghui will be contrary to the national interest.

Shanxi Donghui has filed the necessary application, together with a detailed submission, with FIRB. Shanxi Donghui is confident that the Offer is consistent with the Commonwealth Government's foreign investment policy, and are not aware of any reason why foreign investment approval would not be given (and therefore why the relevant defeating condition of the Offer would not be satisfied) in due course.

- is material to the making of a decision by an Inova Shareholder whether or not to accept the Offer;
