Resignation of Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary

Isentia Group Limited (ASX:ISD) announces the resignation of Nimesh Shah as Chief Financial Officer and Company Secretary.

Nimesh has been an integral part of the Isentia team over the past seven years, which included the listing of the company in June 2014. He will continue in his current role over the next few months to facilitate a smooth transition of responsibilities.

Nimesh is leaving the business to pursue new challenges.

Chief Executive Officer, Isentia, John Croll, said: "I would like to thank Nimesh for his considerable contribution to Isentia. His experience and hard work over the last seven years has been very valuable. I wish him all the best for his future endeavours."

Commenting on his departure, Nimesh Shah, said: "I have thoroughly enjoyed my time with Isentia and being part of its success in becoming Asia Pacific's leading media intelligence company. I look forward working with the CEO and the management team over the coming months to ensure a smooth transition."

The Board has commenced a search to appoint a new CFO and will share more details in due course.
