Energy Action appoints new Chief Executive Officer

Experienced energy industry executive Ivan Slavich appointed CEO effective 3 April 2017

Energy management technology and services company Energy Action Limited (ASX:EAX) (“Energy Action”) today announced the appointment of Ivan Slavich as Chief Executive Officer, effective 3 April 2017. Ivan is a seasoned executive with extensive experience in the energy, telecommunications, banking and finance sectors and business consulting.

Ivan has extensive experience in the energy sector, with over 22 years in a variety of senior management and executive roles at AGL Energy and ActewAGL. For the period 2000 until 2009, he was the General Manager of the ActewAGL Retail division where he had responsibility for all aspects of the water, energy and telecommunications (TransACT Communications) business including sales, marketing, product development, branding, pricing, wholesale purchasing, finance and operations. During this time, ActewAGL cemented its place as the pre-eminent energy retailer in the ACT and the Capital Region, with outstanding customer retention and bundling of innovative services with TransACT.

Ivan also served as the CEO (2008 – 2013) and later Chairman (2013-2014) of TransACT Communications and grew this business dramatically. Ivan was instrumental in the sale of TransACT to iiNet and was subsequently a member of the iiNet executive team.

Ivan’s most recent role was as Managing Director of TRIDENT Corporate Services, which specialises in providing consulting services to enable businesses and governments to achieve their strategic goals and objectives. The company has over 100 clients from Federal Government, State Government and small to medium businesses.

Energy Action Chairman Murray Bleach commented “The Board is delighted that Ivan has agreed to become our next Chief Executive Officer. Ivan’s strong leadership and strategic capability, combined with his extensive energy industry and sales and marketing expertise make him the ideal person to lead the company through its next stage of growth. Ivan’s immediate focus will be on driving improved commercial outcomes.”

Incoming CEO Ivan Slavich commented “I am very excited about joining Energy Action. The organisation has market leading products and services and my immediate priorities will be to take these products and services to a much bigger audience and deliver improved returns to shareholders. I look forward to leading the team to great success in the future.”

Ivan is a Fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors, and holds a Graduate Certificate in Business Administration from the Mt Eliza Business School as part of their executive MBA program, a Graduate Diploma from the Securities Institute of Australia, and a Bachelor of Business degree from the University of Technology, Sydney.

Ivan is a non-executive Director of ASX listed Xtek Ltd and Service One Alliance Bank and supports several not for profit associations including Ronald McDonald House Canberra and Camp Quality.

A summary of the key terms of Ivan's employment agreement with Energy Action are set out in the attached schedule.

The Board extends its thanks to Michael Fahey who has been leading the Company on an interim basis since November 2016. Michael will now assume the role of Chief Operating Officer in addition to his previous position as Chief Financial Officer.
