

Dear Shareholder,

Priority allocation for shareholders and invitation to meet the new investment manager

On 18 April 2017 you will have the opportunity to vote to approve a restructure of Century Australia Investments Limited (ASX: CYA), comprising:

- the appointment of a new investment manager, Wilson Asset Management;
- the appointment of Chris Stott, as a Director;
- a share buy-back; and
- an offer of new shares (Offer) to raise up to $75 million. Existing Century shareholders will be eligible to participate in a priority allocation.

About the investment manager

As the proposed new investment manager, Wilson Asset Management will provide Century investors with an opportunity to invest in S&P/ASX 300 listed companies using its proven research-driven, investment-driven and market-driven processes. Wilson Asset Management's experienced investment team has over 100 years' collective experience in the Australian share market. Wilson Asset Management takes an active approach in engaging with shareholders and communicating with them about activities and performance. More information on Wilson Asset Management is available on its website: www.wilsonassetmanagement.com.au.
