ETHERSTACK PLC [ASX:ESK]

("Etherstack" or the "Company")

USD $1.2m Canadian digital radio network extension contract

Etherstack is pleased to announce the award of a USD$1.2 contract extension with ATCO Electric, a Canadian utility company.

This contract extends the APCO P25 digital radio network contract won by Etherstack in December 2016 and comprises an additional equipment for 51 sites being added to the mission critical radio communications network which supports ATCO Electric's electricity distribution and transmission operations in Alberta, Canada.

The contract extension is expected to be delivered prior to 31 December 2017 and contribute to 2017 revenues additional annual support revenues thereafter.

David Deacon, Etherstack CEO said, "It's very pleasing to win this follow on contract which reflects the quality of our technology solution for mission critical radio networks and the success of the first phase of the ATCO rollout. We look forward to continuing to support ATCO Electric"
