Dear Chris

Trading Halt Request

I confirm Techniche Limited ("TCN")'s request for a trading halt. TCN provides the following information:

1. The reason for the request is that TCN has entered into a contract to sell its German business ERST European Retail Systems Technology GmbH ("ERST") but is in the process of obtaining the consent of the purchaser to disclose the purchaser's name in an announcement by TCN to ASX of the details of the proposed sale.
2. TCN expects the trading halt to last until up to the commencement of ASX trading on Friday, 20 October.
3. TCN expects that the trading halt will be ended by TCN's announcement to ASX of details of the sale of ERST.
4. TCN is not aware of any reason why the trading halt should not be granted.

Yours Faithfully

TECHNICHE LIMITED
