

ASX RELEASE

8th November 2017

ACCC update

The ACCC has informed Cryosite Ltd that it has suspended the timeline for the review of the CellCare Pty Ltd and Cryosite Ltd transaction. The ACCC has sought additional information to assist with their investigation including from Cryosite Ltd. This decision means the provisional decision date of 16 November 2017 is vacated. A new provisional date will be published after all additional information requested has been received. The ACCC was unable to provide an updated provisional decision date at this time.
