CBL Executive Appointment – Jennah Wootten

CBL Corporation Limited (CBL) today announced that Jennah Wootten will join their executive team on 13th November 2017 as General Manager People, Culture and Strategy.

Ms Wootten is a globally respected high-performance leader with a proven capability of delivering on results in highly public pressure situations and achieving enviable results.

Her last executive position was as CEO of World Masters Games 2017 Ltd, for the last 4 1/2 years, where she delivered one of the strongest commercial results for a major international event in New Zealand, and won global acclaim for its success, including being recognised as the "Best Ever World Masters Games".

Ms Wootten has a degree in business studies from Massey University, with a double major in Marketing and Communications, and Sports Management.

Ms Wootten's role will report to the CBL Group CEO, and will be focussed on ensuring that CBL's core culture, commercial competencies, and values which have underpinned its performance over the years, are completely devolved throughout the CBL Group and are embraced, communicated and marketed in the best possible way to help underpin the group's performance out into the future.
