Outlook

- Our profit expectations for FY18 are unchanged, although heavily weighted to 2H.
- 1HFY18 profit is adversely impacted by product approval delays in Australia, temporary margin impacts from a change in the sales mix as we complete the product transition in US and lower unit sales in Asia.
- In 2HFY18 we confidently expect to increase the Group's pre-tax profit, excluding foreign currency impacts, compare to pcp. We expect to sell similar units in North America in 2HFY18 than FY17 in total. We expect to see the early benefits of our new product strategy and our domestic market share to consolidate
- We expect good growth in FY18 compared to pcp in the number of units on participation, which generate high quality recurring revenues.
- Given our expected strong 2H, the Board will consider recommencing dividend in August 2018.
