Customer non-payment – further details

Range International Limited ('Range' or 'Company'), manufacturer of Re>Pal™ recycled plastic pallets, wishes to refute a rumour which has been circulating in the market in relation to the reason for non-payment by the China customer referenced in Range's announcement of 11 December 2017.

The Range Chief Executive Officer, Jon Guyett, recently attended the customer's factory, saw the Range pallets being used to move and dispatch product and received positive feedback from the customer in relation to the pallets supplied.
