Alliance Aviation Services (ASX code: AQZ)

Glencore Contract Extension

- Alliance extends contracts for air charter services for Glencore's Clermont mine
- Extension of contracted flying for Glencore until 2021

Alliance today announced it had signed contract extensions for Glencore's Clermont mine for a further period of 3 years.

Alliance has been providing services to various Glencore operations since 2003 and to the Clermont mine since 2015.

Lee Schofield, Alliance's Chief Executive Officer, said "We are very proud of this extension as it provides great acknowledgement of our ability to provide Glencore with safe, reliable, and cost effective services from Brisbane, Sunshine Coast and Emerald."

Alliance retained this contract through a competitive tendering process.

About Alliance

Alliance Aviation is Australasia's leading provider of contract, charter and allied aviation services currently employing in excess of 500 full time staff in Australia, New Zealand and Europe.

The Company provides essential services to mining, energy, tourism and government sectors and holds IATA's IOSA certification and Flight Safety Foundation "BARS Gold" status, the first such carrier in Australia to be so recognised. In addition a wide range of specialised aviation services including wet leasing, airport management, aircraft trading, parts sales and engine leasing are provided in Australia and internationally.

The Australian business currently operates a fleet of 18 Fokker F100, 9 Fokker 70LR jet aircraft and five Fokker 50 turboprops with additional fleet units scheduled to enter service in 2018.

Alliance has world leading operational performance, a key attribute sought by its customers.

The Company has operational bases in Brisbane, Townsville, Cairns, Melbourne, Adelaide, Perth Auckland and Bratislava.

An operational base will be established in Darwin during the first quarter of 2018.
