RCR Appoints David Robinson to the Board as Non-Executive Director

Diversified engineering company, RCR Tomlinson Ltd (“RCR”), is pleased to announce the appointment of David Robinson to the RCR Board, effective 1 March 2018.

Mr Robinson brings significant engineering experience in the infrastructure, resources, rail and transport markets in Australia, New Zealand, South Africa and Asia. During a 37 year career at McConnell Dowell, including 15 years as Managing Director & CEO until his recent retirement in August 2015, Mr Robinson was instrumental in leading the development and management of McConnell Dowell. McConnell Dowell operated in multiple countries with revenue of circa $3 billion per annum.

Mr Robinson was also a former Non-Executive Director of Aveng, a South African Infrastructure and engineering company listed on the Johannesburg Stock Exchange.

RCR’s Chairman, Roderick Brown, said “We are very pleased to welcome a Director of David’s calibre and experience to the RCR Board. As a former executive of McConnell Dowell, David brings significant experience in large and complex infrastructure, energy and resources projects. In addition, he has the qualities to make a significant contribution at Board level and he joins us during a period of growth,” said Mr Brown.

Mr Robinson holds a Bachelor of Engineering (Civil Engineering) degree and is a fellow of the Australian Institute of Engineers. He is also a fellow of the Australian Institute of Company Directors.

Mr Robinson will be an independent Non-Executive Director and will become a member of the Board’s Audit & Risk Committee upon his appointment.
