ASX Announcement

Senior management changes

Metcash Limited (ASX:MTS) today announced that Scott Marshall has been appointed Chief Executive of the Supermarkets & Convenience pillar following the resignation of Steven Cain.

Over the past three years Steven has been commuting from his home in Melbourne to Sydney. Steven has advised that he has accepted a position based in Melbourne.

Metcash Group Chief Executive Officer, Jeff Adams said: “We understand Steven’s decision to be based in Melbourne and thank him for his contribution in his role as CEO of Supermarkets & Convenience.

“We are fortunate to have a strong leadership team, and Scott is well placed to take over as the CEO of Supermarkets & Convenience.”

Scott has been Chief Executive of Metcash’s well positioned Liquor business for the past four years, and has more than 25 years’ experience in wholesale and retail with Metcash, including in the Supermarkets business where he formerly led the Western Australia operations. Scott has well established relationships with our Supermarkets’ retail network through his position as CEO of Liquor, and from his prior time in Supermarkets.

Rod Pritchard, General Manager Merchandise for the Liquor pillar, has been appointed interim Chief Executive Liquor. Rod has extensive experience in the liquor industry including three years at Metcash working closely with Scott on the Liquor pillar’s growth initiatives, and over 15 years with liquor group Brown-Forman in various senior roles.
