Mainstream appoints Andy Harrison as CEO, Fund Services Australia

Highlights

- › Highly experienced CEO Andy Harrison appointed to run Australian Fund Services business

Mainstream Group Holdings Limited (ASX: MAI) today announced the appointment of Andy Harrison as Chief Executive Officer of Mainstream Fund Services, Australia.

Andy will lead the Group's Australian Fund Services operations, focusing on enhancing service delivery to existing clients and further expanding Mainstream's presence in fund services.

Andy will join Mainstream after more than 15 years with Link Fund Solutions, formerly White Outsourcing, where he is currently CEO and was a director/owner of White Outsourcing.

Mainstream Group's Chief Executive Officer Martin Smith said Andy's appointment provides an opportunity to further build on Mainstream's scale and operational expertise in investment administration, fund accounting and middle office services. "Andy brings a wealth of experience and depth to Mainstream and provides more bench strength to our global leadership team."

Andy is expected to join Mainstream Fund Services in October 2018. The current CEO of Mainstream Fund Services in Australia, Nick Happell, will be promoted to Chief Executive Officer of Asia-Pacific, including Australia, with Martin Smith to relinquish that role to focus on his Group CEO role and Mainstream's key clients.
