Eureka Group settles acquisition of 5 Villages in Tasmania

Eureka Group Holdings Limited (EGH) is pleased to announce that settlement occurred on 9th April 2018 of its acquisition of 5 villages in Tasmania. The acquisition will add 254 units of affordable senior's accommodation across Tasmania in Hobart (2), Launceston (2) and Devonport (1). As previously advised, this acquisition has been undertaken through a 50/50 joint venture.

The Eureka operations and human resources team have been on site to ensure a smooth transition to ownership and to reassure both staff and clients of the Eureka commitment to quality, respect and compassion. The villages have already been rebranded to Eureka and Eureka systems have been seamlessly introduced.

The acquisition takes the Eureka portfolio to 30 owned villages as well as another 9 villages under management.
