

Announcement

MinVu Acquisition – Release of Tranche of Shares from Escrow

17 April 2018

Further to the announcement to the market on 31 January 2018, RPMGlobal Holdings Limited (ASX: RUL) [RPM] confirms in accordance with listing rule 3.10A that 973,680 ordinary RUL shares, issued on 31 January 2018, will be released from voluntary escrow in ten business days (on 1 May 2018).

As previously announced these shares form a part of a total of 3,000,000 shares (valued for consideration at a price of 78 cents per share ($2.34 million)) issued by RPM to the nominees of the outgoing shareholders of Minvu as part of the total consideration for the acquisition by RPM of 100% the issued share capital of the MinVu group of companies and were subject to a ninety (90) day escrow period following completion of the acquisition.

The final tranche of 973,680 escrowed shares will remain in voluntary escrow until 30 July 2018 (180 days from completion of the acquisition) and a further announcement in respect of that release will be made ten business days prior to that date.
