

NAOS Emerging Opportunities Company (NCC)

ABN 58 161 106 510

MONTHLY INVESTMENT REPORT AND NTA UPDATE

NAOS

KEY CHARACTERISTICS

1. Genuine Exposure to Undervalued Emerging Companies with an Industrial Focus

Regardless of market capitalisation and/or liquidity, NCC seeks to provide investors with exposure to high quality, undervalued emerging companies (market capitalisation generally <$250 million) in a transparent and concentrated structure that has the competitive advantage of being a nimble closed ended structure with no liquidity constraints.

2. Sustainable Growing Fully Franked Dividends

NCC's dividend has grown every year since inception with dividends usually paid on a six-monthly basis. To date all dividends have been fully franked.

3. Focus on Quality of Companies Not Quantity or Size

Our primary focus is on developing a deep understanding and appreciation of the companies in our portfolio. We believe the best way to achieve this is to focus on a select number (target 0-15) of high quality investment ideas in order to capitalise on our 'long term knowledge & liquidity advantage'. We target an Internal Hurdle Rate of 20% p.a. over a rolling three-year period for all our investment holdings.

4. Portfolio Flexibility with a Benchmark Unaware Approach

This means we are not forced holders of stocks with large benchmark/index weightings that we are not convinced are attractive investment propositions. NCC can also hold up to 100% cash. It has been proven that holding cash offers the 'best hedge' during times of crisis.

5. Significant Alignment of Interests with Shareholders

NAOS directors and employees (including related parties) own over 10 million NCC shares, providing shareholders with a significant alignment of interests.

6. Environmental, Social and

Governance (ESG) NAOS adopts an ESG screen across its investments.

Investment Portfolio Performance & Market Insight

The NCC Investment Portfolio produced a return of -1.49% compared to the Benchmark S&P/ASX Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index ('XSOAI') which returned +2.75%. This brings the portfolio performance since inception of 5 years and 2 months to +125.11% vs. the XSOAI which has returned +37.03%.

Over the short-term, the Investment Portfolio has underperformed the wider market, which can be primarily attributed to two factors: the first being NCC's non-existent exposure to small cap resources, businesses which have performed very strongly over the past 6-12 months; and secondly the lack of share price appreciation from some of the core positions within the investment portfolio i.e. Consolidated Operations Group (ASX: COG), BSA Limited (ASX: BSA) and Enero Group (ASX: EGG), which has more then offset some of the better performers such as CML Group (ASX: CGR). One of our significant competitive advantages at NAOS is our ability and desire to take a long-term view on our investments (i.e. more than 24 months), though in today's environment this can lead to periods of underperformance. This is similar to what we experienced in FY15, recording a gain of just +1.43% before returning a gain of +24.77% the following year, with a very similar group of investments.

There was little significant news within the investment portfolio during April, although there were updates of note from BTC Health (ASX: BTC), Big River (ASX: BRI), and Enero Group (ASX: EGG). Firstly, it was pleasing to see the Executive Chairman of BTC acquire a further 2% of all shares on issue at 20 cents per share, a price almost 100% higher than at the beginning of CY2017, demonstrating significant alignment with shareholders. Big River released disappointing full year profit guidance to the market, driven by their manufacturing division which we believe will just breakeven this year. In our view it is debatable whether this part of the business is core, it is not central to our investment thesis, which is based around the distribution business, but is disappointing nonetheless. Finally, Enero added further industry expertise to their Board, with the announcement that David Brain will join the Board as an Independent Director. David was previously a Director of the Group supervisory board of the world's largest PR firm, Edelman, and was CEO of two of their three global divisions.

A Description of Statistical Terms/Glossary

Average Market Capitalisation of the Portfolio's Equity Holdings – The sum of, the percentage of each individual position relative to the total value of all Equity Holdings multiplied by each company's respective market capitalisation (Cash and Income/Debt securities are excluded).

Standard Deviation of Returns – A historical analysis of the volatility in monthly returns also known as historical volatility.

Correlation of Returns – A statistical measure of how two variables move in relation to each other. In this case the two variables are NCC and XSOAI. If the correlation is 1 then the two securities should have the same monthly returns and if the correlation is -1 and XSOAI had a return of -1.00% then NCC would be expected to have a return of +1.00%

Sortino Ratio – A modification of the Sharpe ratio that differentiates harmful volatility from general volatility by taking into account the standard deviation of negative asset returns, called downside deviation. A large Sortino Ratio may potentially indicate that there is a low probability of a large capital loss. Returns less than that of the benchmark (S&P/ASX Small Ordinaries Accumulation Index - XSOAI) are classified as negative asset returns.

Downside Deviation – A measure of downside risk that focuses on returns that fall below a minimum threshold or minimum acceptable return (MAR). For our calculations, we use returns negative to zero for the calculation of portfolio downside deviation.

Portfolio Beta – A measure of the volatility, or systematic risk of a portfolio or security. A beta of 1 indicates a portfolio/security's price will move with the market. A beta of less than 1 indicated that a security/portfolio should be less volatile than the market.
