

NAOS Absolute Opportunities Company (NAC)

MONTHLY INVESTMENT REPORT AND NTA UPDATE

NAOS

KEY CHARACTERISTICS

1. Concentrated Small/Mid Cap Exposure with a Long Term Value Focus

NAC seeks to provide investors with exposure to high quality, undervalued small-mid cap companies (market capitalisation generally >$400 million to $1 billion+) with an industrial bias in a concentrated structure.

2. Sustainable Growing Fully Franked Dividends

NAC's dividend has grown every year since inception with dividends usually paid on a six-monthly basis. To date all dividends have been fully franked.

3. Focus on Quality of Companies Not Quantity

Our primary focus is on developing a deep understanding and appreciation of the companies in our portfolio. We believe the best way to achieve this is to focus on a select number (typically 0-20) of high quality investment ideas in order to capitalise on our 'long term knowledge & liquidity advantage'. NAC has the ability to selectively short sell companies that the investment team believe are overvalued and of poor quality.

4. Portfolio Flexibility with a Benchmark Unaware Approach

This means we are not forced holders of stocks with large benchmark/index weightings that we are not convinced are attractive investment propositions. NAC can also hold up to 100% cash, it has been proven that holding cash offers the 'best hedge' during times of crisis.

5. Significant Alignment of Interests with Shareholders

NAOS directors and employees (including related parties) own over 8 million NAC shares, providing shareholders with a significant alignment of interests.

6. Environmental, Social and Governance (ESG) NAOS adopts an ESG screen across its investments.

Investment Portfolio Performance & Market Insight

The NAC Investment Portfolio returned +0.85% for the month of May compared to the absolute benchmark which increased by +0.38%. This brings the inception return for 3 years and six months to +67.63% compared to the benchmark return of +17.44% and the S&P/ASX All Ordinaries Accumulation Index return of +30.72%.

There were two notable events within the Investment Portfolio for May, both of which related to large core holdings. The first was Elders (ASX: ELD), which released their HY2018 results, followed by Japara Healthcare (ASX: JHC), which provided an update on their recent Riviera Health acquisition, and also provided an updated investor presentation later in the month.

Pleasingly, Elders reported a strong result for the HY ended 31 March 2018. Over the course of the past 4 years, Elders has done an excellent job of diversifying its earnings base which has helped the business deliver a more stable earnings stream, despite some volatility in agricultural prices across the country. We believe that another significant driver of the Elders share price has been their focus on capital allocation, which has seen the business deliver a return on capital in excess of 25%, well above its peers. At the result, Elders demonstrated a continuation of this strategy by announcing the divestment of their Indonesian business which will allow them to reallocate $13 million of low returning capital into a higher returning part of their business. Elders remains on track to exceed their 2020 strategic goal of delivering a 20% return on capital along with sustainable EBIT growth, and as such continues to be a core position within the NAC portfolio.

JHC announced that the facilities recently acquired through the Riviera Health acquisition have received full accreditation from the Aged Care Quality Agency (ACQA). This accreditation is significant as it was removed under the old ownership of Riviera Health, which then led to the sales process. JHC also released a presentation to the market later in the month which in our view highlighted a number of key points including: a focus on the integrated care model which includes assisted living, senior living, home help and residential aged care; further granularity on the development pipeline for the next 3 years; and finally, further discussion on the strategy to provide choice and quality for clients. If management can execute on this business plan we believe it should lead to a more sustainable return profile for JHC over the longer term.

Description of Statistical Terms/Glossary

Average Market Capitalisation of the Portfolio's Equity Holdings – The sum of, the percentage of each individual position relative to the total value of all Equity Holdings multiplied by each company's respective market capitalisation (Cash and Income/Debt securities are excluded).

Standard Deviation of Returns – A historical analysis of the volatility in monthly returns also known as historical volatility.

Correlation of Returns – A statistical measure of how two securities move in relation to each other. In this case the two securities are NAC and XAOAI. If the correlation is 1 then the two securities should have the same monthly returns and if the correlation is -1 and XAOAI had a return of -1.00% then NAC would be expected to have a return of +1.00%

Sortino Ratio – A modification of the Sharpe ratio that differentiates harmful volatility from general volatility by taking into account the standard deviation of negative asset returns, called downside deviation. A large Sortino may potentially indicate that there is a low probability of a large capital loss.

Downside Deviation – A measure of downside risk that focuses on returns that fall below a minimum threshold or minimum acceptable return (MAR). For our calculations, we use returns negative to zero for the calculation of portfolio downside deviation.

Portfolio Beta – A measure of the volatility, or systematic risk of a portfolio or security. A beta of 1 indicates a portfolio/security's price will move with the market. A beta of less than 1 indicated that a security/portfolio should be less volatile than the market.
