BAF confirms share buy-back program remains active however a blackout period is currently in place

Blue Sky Alternatives Access Fund Limited (ASX: BAF) notes that its share buy-back program announced on 30 April 2018 remains active. However, for compliance reasons BAF has determined a blackout period is in place in relation to the buy-back program for the 10 trading days prior to each monthly NTA being released. Accordingly, this month the blackout period commences on Monday, 2 July 2018 and will continue until BAF's June NTA report is released on 13 July 2018.
