Corporate Governance Statement

This Corporate Governance Statement sets out the Company's current compliance with the third edition of the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (Principles and Recommendations). The Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory. However, the Company will be required to provide a statement in its future annual reports disclosing the extent to which the Company has followed the Principles and Recommendations.

The Board of the Company currently has in place corporate governance policies and charters which have been posted in a dedicated corporate governance information section on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
1	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1	Companies should disclose: (a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and (b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.	Yes	The respective roles and responsibilities of the Board and management are defined under the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com . There is a clear delineation between the Board's responsibility for the Company's strategy and activities, and the day-to-day management of operations conferred upon the Chief Executive Officer and certain other officers of the Company.
1.2	Companies should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election, as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	The process for selection, appointment, and re-appointment of directors is detailed in the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com . Under the Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, shareholders are required to be provided with all material information in the Committee's possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director including, biographical details, qualifications, a statement as to whether the Board supports the nomination of the director and the degree of independence of the director and, details of any existing directorships held.

1.3	Companies should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	The Company requires each director and senior executive to execute a written agreement setting out the terms of their appointment.
1.4	The company secretary (or person nominated by the Board to perform the role of company secretary) should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	No	The Company has not appointed a Company Secretary which it is not legally required to do under Delaware Corporation Law and applicable US law. Alternatively, the Company has appointed Company Matters Pty Ltd to provide company secretarial services in line with the role of the company secretary outlined in the Board Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com. The relevant person nominated by Company Matters Pty Ltd to perform these services will report directly to the chair of the Board and is directly accountable to the through the chair of the Board.
1.5	Companies should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them and either:	Yes	The Company has adopted a Diversity Policy, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com. The Diversity Policy requires the Board to establish measureable objectives to assist the Company to achieve gender diversity and to assess the Company's progress in achieving these objectives. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee will report to the Board on the Company's progress towards achieving its measurable objectives each year. The Company has not yet adopted measurable objectives.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
	(i) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined “senior executive” for these purposes); or (ii) if the entity is a “relevant employer” under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent “Gender Equality Indicators”, as defined in and published under that Act.		The Company will provide updates on its progress towards achieving its diversity objectives including the respective proportions of men and women on the Board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined “Senior executive”) in its future annual reports.
1.6	Companies should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes	Under the Board Charter, the Board is required, at least once per year, with the advice and assistance of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee, to review and evaluate the performance of the Board, its Committees and individual directors against the relevant charters, corporate governance policies, and agreed goals and objectives (as applicable). The Board will ensure that an evaluation of the Board, its committees and individual directors is undertaken in accordance with the Board Charter in future years. The Company will provide details as to its compliance with these recommendations in its future annual reports.
1.7	Companies should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes	Under the Board Charter, the Board (with the advice and assistance of the Remuneration and Nomination Committee) is responsible for reviewing and approving the performance of the members of the executive leadership team. The Board will ensure that an evaluation of the members of its executive leadership team is undertaken in accordance with the Board Charter in future years.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
2	Structure the board to add value?
2.1	The board should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an Independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No in respect of 2.1(a)(i) Yes in respect of other guidelines	The Board has established a Remuneration and Nomination Committee to oversee the selection and appointment practices of the Company. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is governed by a Remuneration and Nomination Committee Charter, which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee consists of three members, Ryan Benton (Chair), Kevin Landis and David Michael, all of whom are non-executive directors with only Ryan Benton being an independent director. The Board is mindful of the recommendation that the Remuneration and Nomination Committee be comprised of a majority of members whom are independent directors and will continue to take this into consideration when considering future membership. Notwithstanding this, the Board is satisfied that the current composition of directors is appropriate for the Company's circumstances. The Remuneration and Nomination Committee is chaired by Ryan Benton, who is an independent non-executive director for ASX purposes. The Company will provide details as to the number of times the Committee met and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings in its future annual reports.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
2.2	Companies should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Yes	The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee is responsible for regularly reviewing the size, composition and skills of the Board to ensure that the Board is able to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively and to identify any gaps in the skills or experience of the Board. The Company will provide details of any board skills matrix it adopted (if any) in its future annual reports.
2.3	Companies should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	No	The Company assesses the independence of its directors against the requirements for independence set out in the Board Charter which reflect the independence criteria set out in the ASX Corporate Governance Principles. Director independence is initially assessed upon each director's appointment and reviewed each year, or as required when a new personal interest or conflict of interest is disclosed. Directors are required to disclose all actual or potential conflicts of interest on an ongoing basis. Ryan Benton is the director considered by the Board to be independent for ASX purposes. John Hoffman is not considered to be independent due to his executive role as CEO with the Company. Dr. Joseph Monkowski is not considered independent due to his executive role as Chief Technology Officer with the Company. Kevin Landis is not considered independent due to his position as the CEO and CIO of Firsthand Capital Management, the investment adviser to Firsthand Technology Value Fund, Inc, which is a substantial shareholder of the independent non-executive director to supplement the experience on the Board. The Board is mindful of the recommendation that a majority of the Board should be independent directors and will continue to take this into consideration when considering the future nomination, election or re-election of directors to the Board.

2.5	The chair of the board should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO.	No	The Chairman of the Board is John Hoffman. John Hoffman is not considered an independent director for ASX purposes. The role of CEO is also held by John Hoffman. The Board is mindful of the recommendation that the chair of the Board should be an independent director and should not be the same person as the CEO. The Board will continue to take this into consideration when considering the future nomination of the Chair of the Board, however, the Board believes John Hoffman's exercise of these two roles are appropriate for the Company's business and circumstances and is in the best interests of shareholders as whole.
2.6	Companies should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee is responsible for establishing and facilitating induction for new directors and providing new directors with all such information and advice which may be considered necessary or desirable for the director to commence their appointment to the Board. The Company's Remuneration and Nomination Committee is also responsible for providing directors with access to continuing education for directors for the purpose of

	(v) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.		The Audit and Risk Management Committee is governed by an Audit and Risk Management Committee Charter, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com. The Company will provide details as to the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee, the number of times the committee met and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings in its future annual reports.
4.2	The board should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	Prior to the Board approving the Company's financial statements, the Board will ensure that it receives from the CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained, that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity, and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.
4.3	Companies should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Yes	The Company requires its external auditor to attend its AGM to answer any questions from shareholders relevant to the audit and this is specifically set out in the Company's Shareholder Communication Policy.
5	Make timely and balance disclosure
5.1	Companies should:	Yes	The Company is committed to taking a proactive approach to continuous disclosure and creating a culture within the Company that promotes and facilitates compliance with the Company's continuous disclosure obligations.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
	(a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.		The Company has adopted a written policy to ensure compliance with their ASX Listing Rule disclosure obligations. A copy of the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy is available on its website at www.pivotalsys.com. The Company has appointed its CEO as the reporting officer and its local agent (Company Matters Pty Ltd) as the ASX liaison officer. However, the Board retains ultimate responsibility for compliance with the Company's continuous disclosure obligations.
6	Respect the rights of security holders
6.1	Companies should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	The Company provides investors with comprehensive and timely access to information about itself and its governance on its website at www.pivotalsys.com, including copies of the Company's Certificate of Incorporation and Bylaws, Board and committee charters and key corporate governance policies, copies of all material information lodged with ASX, copies of all announcements, briefings and speeches made to the market, analysts or the media, press releases or announcements made by the Company, financial data for the Company, the Company's annual reports and notices of shareholder meetings. Further details are set out in the Company's Shareholder Communication Policy.
6.2	Companies should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Yes	The Company has adopted a Shareholder Communications Policy for shareholders wishing to communicate with the Board, a copy of which is available on the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com. The Company seeks to utilise numerous modes of communication, including electronic communication to ensure that its communication with shareholders is frequent, clear and accessible.

Principles and Recommendations		Comply Yes / No	Explanation
6.3	Companies should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Yes	All shareholders are invited to attend the Company's annual meetings either in person or by representative. Shareholders have an opportunity to submit questions to the Board or the Company's external auditor.
	Companies should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically	Yes	The Company encourages shareholders to submit questions or requests for information directly to the Company via the Company's website at www.pivotalsys.com . The Company also encourages shareholders to submit any questions related to their shareholdings in the Company to the Company's share registry with the share registry's contact details included in the Company's Shareholder Communication Policy, including details for electronic communication.
7	Recognise and manage risk
7.1	Companies should: (a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (i) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (ii) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (iii) the charter of the committee; (iv) the members of the committee; and (v) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual	No in respect of 7.1(a)(i) Yes in respect of other guidelines	In conjunction with the Company's other corporate governance policies, the Company has adopted a Risk Management Policy which is designed to assist the Company to identify, assess, monitor and manage its risk, including any material changes to its risk profile. The Board has delegated responsibility for the day-to day oversight and management of the Company's risk profile to the Audit and Risk Management Committee. The Audit and Risk Management Committee is responsible for ensuring that the Company maintains effective risk management and internal control systems and processes and provides regular reports to the Board on these matters.
