Brambles Limited: Maurice Blackburn Class Action Media Reports

On 18 October 2017, Brambles advised the market of media reports noting that Maurice Blackburn had announced it was assessing investor interest and the merits of a potential class action against Brambles in relation to its FY17 first quarter trading update lodged on 20 October 2016.

Brambles notes media articles yesterday evening and today which report that a Maurice Blackburn action was filed against Brambles in the Federal Court yesterday morning. Brambles advises that it has not yet been served with any such action by Maurice Blackburn.

The media reports suggest that Maurice Blackburn action will allege contraventions of continuous disclosure obligations relating to the timing of its revised FY17 outlook disclosures to the market in January and February 2017. Brambles strongly believes that it at all times complied with its continuous disclosure and all other regulatory obligations in relation to those disclosures.

Should Brambles be served by Maurice Blackburn, it will vigorously defend those proceedings.
