ASX Announcement

- Distributor appointed in Guangdong

Star Combo Pharma Limited (ASX: S66) is pleased to announce the finalisation of its first offline Distributor contract in China.

The new distributor contract for the Province of Guangdong will give the company significant additional channels to market including 173 Pharmacy stores, 3,000 Baby Food stores and 200 Supermarkets.

Star Combo has 7 products that were recently approved by Chinese authorities for offline sale in China.

The new distributor has paid an amount of Yuan 20,000 in advance for the rights and must maintain minimum annual sales of approximately A$600k in the first year and growing annually thereafter.

These distribution arrangements have arisen as a result of the recent opening of the Star Combo China sales office in Chongqing.

The Chinese market is expected to be a key contributor to the future revenue growth of the Company.
