China Magnesium Corporation Limited (ASX: CMC; "CMC" or "the Company") is pleased to announce a pro rata non-renounceable rights issue of fully paid ordinary shares at $0.05 each (a 92% premium to yesterday's closing price). Rights are offered on the basis of one (1) share for every two (2) shares held at the record date, together with one free unlisted option (exercisable at $0.10) on or before 15 February 2019) for every one (1) new share offered ("Offer").

The primary purpose of the Offer is to (and the funds raised from the Offer are intended to be used to) provide the Company with additional general working capital and flexibility to further its existing Australian and Chinese operations and, if thought fit, to put it in a stronger position to build capacity and acquire assets in industries which leverage the Company's strengths and advantages.

This is likely to include expenditure on or related to:

- the Company's corporate expenses in Australia and China; and
- other general working capital, including working capital for the Company's magnesium-lithium plant in China.

As at the date of this offer document and assuming no additional shares are issued before the record date, up to approximately 157,448,517 new shares and 157,448,517 new options may be issued pursuant to the Offer, raising up to approximately $7.8 million (before the expenses of the Offer).

Shareholders who are registered as at 7.00pm (Queensland time), [25] October 2018 ("Record Date") will be eligible to participate in the Offer.
