Sydney, New South Wales

CHAIRMAN'S LETTER

Dear Securityholder

Please find enclosed a Notice of General Meeting of Macquarie Bank Limited (MBL) which will be held in Macquarie's Sydney Office in the Auditorium, Level 10, 50 Martin Place, Sydney, New South Wales on Monday, 10 December 2018.

The meeting is scheduled to commence at 10:30 am.

The General Meeting is being held to consider a proposed capital return comprising an equal reduction of MBL's ordinary share capital of up to $2,040 million (Capital Return).

The Capital Return is to be undertaken in connection with a proposed internal restructure of Macquarie Group Limited (MGL) involving the transfer of the Corporate and Asset Finance Group's (CAF) Principal Finance and Transportation Finance businesses from the Bank Group to the Non-Bank Group (Internal Restructure). Subject to the satisfaction of all necessary conditions, it is proposed that the Capital Return will be effected on or about 10 December 2018.

Holders of MBL ordinary shares and Macquarie Income Securities (MIS) are entitled to vote on the proposed resolution. MIS holders are entitled to vote because it concerns a proposal to reduce MBL's share capital. However, MIS holders will not receive any payment in connection with the Capital Return and represent less than 1% of the total number of votes eligible to be cast on the resolution.

Macquarie B.H. Pty Limited (MBHPL), MBL's sole ordinary shareholder and a subsidiary of Macquarie Group Limited, has confirmed that it intends to vote its ordinary shares in favour of the resolution.

You are welcome to attend the meeting. If you cannot attend, you may submit your proxy appointment online. If you plan to attend the meeting, please bring the enclosed proxy form to facilitate your registration which will commence at 10:00am.

EXPLANATORY MEMORANDUM

1. INTRODUCTION

Macquarie Bank Limited (MBL) is a direct subsidiary of Macquarie B.H. Pty Limited (MBHPL). Both MBL and MBHPL are subsidiaries of Macquarie Group Limited (MGL). MBL and its subsidiaries are members of the Bank Group. MGL and its subsidiary, Macquarie Financial Holdings Pty Limited (MFHPL) and its subsidiaries, are members of the Non-Bank Group.

This Notice of Meeting and Explanatory Memorandum is being provided to MBHPL (as MBL's sole ordinary shareholder) and holders of Macquarie Income Securities (MIS).

On 2 November 2018, MBL announced a General Meeting to take place on 10 December 2018 to approve a proposed Capital Return comprising an equal reduction of MBL's ordinary share capital of up to $2,040 million.

As announced on 2 November 2018, the Capital Return is to be undertaken in connection with an internal restructure of Macquarie Group Limited (MGL) involving the transfer of the Corporate and Asset Finance Group's (CAF) Principal Finance and Transportation Finance businesses (CAF Businesses) from the Bank Group to the Non-Bank Group (Internal Restructure). Further details in relation to the Internal Restructure are set out in Section 2 below and in MBL's 1H19 Interim Financial Report lodged with ASX on 2 November 2018.

Subject to satisfaction of all necessary conditions, it is expected that the Internal Restructure will be implemented on a designated 'Effective Date' (currently proposed to be 10 December 2018). The transfer of assets to the Non-Bank Group pursuant to the Internal Restructure will release capital in MBL. The Australian Prudential Regulation Authority (APRA) has given approval for MBL to return up to $2,040 million of such capital to its sole ordinary shareholder, MBHPL, by way of the Capital Return and for MBHPL to in turn return such capital to its parent, MGL. MIS holders will not receive any payment in connection with the Capital Return.

Approval of the Capital Return requires approval of MBL's ordinary shareholder and holders of MIS by way of an ordinary resolution.

The Capital Return remains subject to confirmation by MBL on or prior to the Effective Date that there is no legal or regulatory impediment to MBL undertaking the Capital Return (see further at Section 2 below).

2. THE INTERNAL RESTRUCTURE

The Internal Restructure is intended to simplify Macquarie Group's structure by better reflecting the latest activities of the individual CAF Businesses.

CAF Principal Finance provides flexible primary financing solutions and engages in secondary market investing, across the capital structure. CAF Transportation Finance involves the financing of aircraft, rotorcraft and rail assets.

MBL has entered into two restructure deeds with other members of the Macquarie Group to implement the Internal Restructure. Pursuant to the restructure deeds, MBL has agreed to transfer all of the economic risk and benefit and decision making in relation to these CAF Businesses from the Bank Group to the Non-Bank Group on the Effective Date, which is currently proposed to be 10 December 2018. The post-tax profit of the CAF Businesses included in the Consolidated MBL results for the half year ended 30 September 2018 was approximately $150 million, of the total of $735 million attributable to the ordinary shareholder.

The CAF Businesses are both reported as part of the CAF operating segment and will be transferred for consideration reflecting aggregate fair value on the Effective Date, currently estimated to be approximately $7.4 billion¹. As a consequence of the transfer, MBL will deconsolidate the net assets of the CAF Businesses resulting in a post tax increase in equity of approximately $0.3 billion¹. Subject to satisfaction of all applicable legal requirements, MBL expects to pay this amount as a dividend to its sole ordinary shareholder, MBHPL, and for MBHPL to in turn pay a corresponding dividend to its parent, MGL.

In connection with the transfer, it is proposed to return up to $2,040 million of capital from MBL to MGL. APRA has given approval for the Capital Return.

The balance of the consideration received will be predominately used to reduce the borrowings of MBL.

As a result of the Internal Restructure (including the Capital Return), MBL expects its regulatory CET1 ratio to increase by approximately 0.7%, from 10.4% reported at 30 September 2018 to 11.1% on a pro-forma basis².

The Internal Restructure (including the Capital Return) is not expected to affect MBL's credit ratings.

(1) Estimated valuation position in Australian dollars. The valuation will be updated to reflect the business position and exchange rates at the time of transfer. Accordingly, the dividend will be adjusted to reflect the value at the Effective Date, expected to be 10 December 2018.

(2) Estimated capital impact based on the current business position. The ultimate impact will reflect changes to the business position and exchange rates at the Effective Date, expected to be 10 December 2018.

MBL Condition

MBL's obligations to proceed with the Internal Restructure and Capital Return will be subject to confirmation by MBL on or prior to the Effective Date that there is no legal or regulatory impediment to MBL undertaking the Capital Return.

3. IMPACT OF CAPITAL RETURN ON MBL3.1 Effect on capital structure

If the Capital Return is implemented, MBL's ordinary share capital will be reduced by the aggregate amount of the Capital Return, being an amount up to $2,040 million.

As no MBL ordinary shares will be cancelled in connection with the Capital Return, the Capital Return will not affect the number of ordinary shares on issue in MBL, or the control of MBL. The Capital Return will not affect the number of MIS held by each MIS holder.

3.2 Effect on financial position

In determining whether to implement the Capital Return, the Directors have satisfied themselves as to the solvency of MBL and consider that the Capital Return will not materially prejudice MBL's ability to pay its creditors.

3.3 Impact on hybrid securities

As at the date of this Notice of Meeting, MBL has on issue the following hybrid instruments:

- MIS;
- Macquarie Additional Capital Securities ("MACS"); and
- Macquarie Bank Capital Notes ("BCN").

Further detail in relation to the hybrid instruments is contained in MBL's 2018 Annual Report and available on Macquarie's website at macquarie.com/au/about/investors/reports

The proposed Capital Return will not result in any adjustment to the terms of the above hybrid securities, nor is it expected to materially affect MBL's ability to pay distributions under the terms of those instruments.

3.4 Impact on MBL's strategy

The Capital Return is not expected to have any material impact on MBL's ability to fund new investments in its core business, or to fund new investments consistent with its current strategy.

3.5 Tax implications

No adverse tax implications are expected to arise for MBL, MBL ordinary shareholders or MIS holders as a consequence of the Capital Return.

4. RATIONALE

4.1 Expected advantages of the Capital Return

The expected advantages of the Capital Return are as follows:

- The MBL Board has approved the Internal Restructure, subject to satisfaction of all necessary conditions. If the Internal Restructure is implemented, MBL will have excess regulatory capital that it is not currently anticipated to require and is available to be returned to its ultimate parent company, MGL, by way of the Capital Return; and
- MBL will continue to maintain a strong balance sheet position and a level of shareholders' equity for prudent and efficient capital management.

MBHPL, MBL's sole ordinary shareholder and a subsidiary of MGL, has confirmed that it intends to vote 100% of its shares in favour of the resolution. Holders of MIS are also entitled to vote on the proposed resolution because it concerns a proposal to reduce MBL's share capital. MIS holders represent less than 1% of the total number of votes eligible to be cast on the resolution. Assuming that MBHPL votes its shares in accordance with its current intention, the Capital Return resolution will be passed and the Capital Return will proceed, subject to the terms set out in this Notice of General Meeting including the Explanatory Memorandum.

4.2 Possible disadvantages and risks

The following are possible disadvantages and risks associated with the proposed Capital Return:

- the Capital Return will reduce MBL's shareholder equity;
- you may believe that MBL should retain the excess capital and use it in a different way within MBL; and
- you may disagree with the conclusion of the Board that MBL will continue to maintain a strong balance sheet position and a level of shareholders' equity for prudent and efficient capital management.

5. FURTHER DETAILS OF THE PROPOSED CAPITAL RETURN

5.1 Method of return of capital

The Capital Return will be implemented as an equal reduction of MBL's ordinary share capital for the purposes of the Corporations Act. The Capital Return is an equal reduction because it relates only to ordinary shares and applies to each MBL ordinary shareholder in proportion to the number of ordinary shares they hold with the terms of the reduction being the same for each ordinary shareholder (being MBHPL, as MBL's sole ordinary shareholder).

The payment of the Capital Return will be satisfied by the payment by MBL to its direct parent, MBHPL (or at its direction) of the Capital Return amount on the Effective Date.

The resolution to approve the Capital Return, if passed, will constitute the approval of MBL's shareholders under section 256C of the Corporations Act for the proposed equal capital reduction under section 256B of the Corporations Act, for an aggregate amount up to $2,040 million, to be applied on a pro rata basis to MBL's ordinary shares.

5.2 Statutory requirements

Under section 256B of the Corporations Act, MBL may only reduce its share capital if the Capital Return satisfies the requirements which are set out below, together with a description of how that requirement is met in relation to the proposed Capital Return.

a) The Capital Return is fair and reasonable to MBL's shareholders as a whole.

As at the date of this Explanatory Memorandum (and subject to confirmation of satisfaction of the MBL Condition on or prior to the Effective Date), the Directors are of the view that the proposed Capital Return is fair and reasonable to MBL's shareholders as a whole.

All ordinary shareholders will be treated in the same manner under the terms of the Capital Return.

The Directors are of the view that the proposed Capital Return is also fair and reasonable to MIS holders as the Capital Return is not expected to materially affect MBL's ability to service its obligations under the terms of the MIS, including its ability to pay distributions on MIS.

b) The Capital Return does not materially prejudice MBL's ability to pay its creditors.

In determining whether to implement the Capital Return, the Directors have satisfied themselves as to the solvency of MBL and consider that the Capital Return will not materially prejudice MBL's ability to pay its creditors.

c) The Capital Return is approved by MBL shareholders under section 256C of the Corporations Act.

The resolution to approve the Capital Return will be considered by MBL's shareholders at the General Meeting for the purposes of complying with section 256C(1) of the Corporations Act. Holders of MIS are entitled to vote on the resolution in accordance with the terms and conditions of the MIS. In accordance with section 256C of the Corporations Act and terms and conditions of the MIS, the resolution must be approved by a simple majority of votes cast by or on behalf of MBHPL (as MBL's sole ordinary shareholder) and holders of MIS on the resolution, in order to be passed.

In accordance with section 256C(5) of the Corporations Act, a copy of this Notice of Meeting (including the Explanatory Memorandum) has been lodged with the Australian Securities and Investments Commission.

As noted in Section 2, in the event that the proposed resolution is approved by MBL's Securityholders, the Capital Return and Internal Restructure will remain subject to satisfaction of the MBL Condition, to be confirmed on or prior to the Effective Date.

5.3 No other material information

Other than as set out in this Notice of Meeting (including the Explanatory Memorandum), and any other information previously disclosed to the Securityholders of MBL, there is no other information that is known to MBL which may reasonably be expected to be material to the making of a decision by MBL ordinary shareholders or MIS holders whether or not to vote in favour of the Capital Return.

6. BOARD RECOMMENDATION

The MBL Board unanimously recommends that Securityholders vote in favour of the proposed Capital Return.
