

ASX EXEMPTED ECG FROM QUARTERLY CASH FLOW REPORT APPENDIX 4C

November 20, 2018, SYDNEY: eCargo Holdings Limited (ASX:ECG) ("ECG" or the "Company") is pleased to announce that the Company has been exempted by ASX from quarterly cash flow reporting Appendix 4C under Listing Rule 4.7B with effective from the quarter ending December 31, 2018.

This is resulted from the improvement in ECG's cash flow for the past six quarters and is testimony to the Company's positive response to the business transformation since the second half of the year ended December 31, 2017. This follows the recent announcements made regarding the acquisition of the Metcash Asia (China focused) and Jessica's Suitcase businesses by ECG.

About ECG

ECG is a China-based eCommerce technology and specialist execution group of companies, with operating companies in China and Australia trading under the brand names of eCargo, Jessica's Suitcase and Amblique, providing on-demand digital commerce strategy, technology development and the related execution services for retailers and brands. Following the acquisition of Metcash's China business, ECG's service offering has extended to offline wholesale distribution channels in China.

eCargo acts as a "one-stop" enabling partner for designer fashion, branded apparel and retail companies seeking to sell their products online in China by providing integrated online and offline technology and supply chain solutions. Jessica's Suitcase, headquartered in Sydney, operates an eCommerce store on Alibaba's Tmall Global Platform, offering quality Australia and New Zealand groceries and foodstuff products to Chinese consumers through the cross-border online channel. Amblique is a leading digital commerce consultancy, providing retail strategy, eCommerce platform implementation and optimisation services in Australia and New Zealand.
