Dear Shareholder

RE: ADVANCE NANOTEK LIMITED NON-RENOUNCEABLE RIGHTS ISSUE

On 15 November 2018, Advance Nanotek Limited (ACN 079 845 855) ("Company") announced that it would undertake a non-renounceable entitlement rights issue on a 1 for 30 basis ("Entitlement Offer") to holders of ordinary shares ("Shares") in the Company ("Shareholders") held at 5:00pm (AEST) on 13 December 2018 ("Record Date").

The Entitlement Offer will be offered to those shareholders who are registered as a holder of ordinary shares in the Company as at the Record Date ("Eligible Shareholders") and are not in the United States.

Eligible Shareholders will receive an Entitlement Offer booklet including a personalised entitlement and acceptance form which will provide further details of how to participate in the Entitlement Offer. A copy of the Offer Booklet was lodged with the ASX on 10 December 2018 and is available on the ASX website.

The Entitlement Offer booklet will be dispatched to Eligible Shareholders in Australia and New Zealand.

Details of the Entitlement Offer

Pursuant to the Entitlement Offer the Company will issue up to 1,872,449 new ordinary shares ("New Shares") to raise up to A$1,629,030 (before costs of raising).

The New Shares will rank equally with existing ordinary shares in the Company.

Under the Entitlement Offer, Eligible Shareholders will be invited to subscribe for 1 New Share at $0.87 ("Issue Price") for every 30 ordinary shares held at the Record Date. Fractional entitlements are being rounded up to the next whole New Share.

The Company will make application to the ASX for the official quotation of the New Shares.

The Entitlement Offer is being conducted under section 708AA of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) as notionally modified by ASIC Corporations (Non-Traditional Rights Issues) Instrument 2016/84 and does not require a Prospectus.

Entitlements are non-renounceable and will not be tradeable on ASX or otherwise transferable. The Entitlement Offer is not underwritten.

Eligible Shareholders who do not take up their entitlements will not receive any value in respect of those entitlements that they do not take up (and their shareholding in the Company will be diluted). Shareholders who are not eligible to receive entitlements will not receive any value in respect of the entitlements they would have received had they been eligible.

No shareholder approval is required for the Entitlement Offer.

Capital structure implications

The principal effect of the Entitlement Offer will be to increase the total number of Shares.

The following table shows the capital structure of the Company on completion of the Entitlement Offer if all of the entitlements are taken up by Eligible Shareholders.

Shares	Number
Shares on issue at the date of the Offer Booklet	56,173,460
Maximum number of New Shares to be issued under the Entitlement Offer	1,872,449

Purpose of the Entitlement Offer and use of funds

It is proposed that the funds raised from the Entitlement Offer will be used for general working capital.

However, in the event that circumstances change or other opportunities arise, the Directors reserve the right to vary the proposed uses of funds in an effort to maximise the benefit to shareholders.
