ASX announcement

Amendment to first financial half-year end date

Aventus Holdings Limited (ABN 627 640 180) (Aventus) (ASX: AVN) advises that, in order to align Aventus' half year reporting dates and to avoid the need to prepare two sets of half year accounts, the Australian Securities and Investments Commission (ASIC) has granted relief (ASIC Instrument No. 18–1184) under section 340 of the Corporations Act 2001 (Cth) (Corporations Act) to Aventus from the requirements under Division 2 of Part 2M.3 of the Corporations Act so that Aventus' first half year end date is 31 December 2018, rather than 20 January 2019.
