Major Shareholder Launches Ethical Zinc Sunscreen Brand

Three of ANO's shareholders who collectively own 16% of Advance NanoTek Limited, have launched a new brand of sunscreen "Ethical Zinc" based on one of the zinc dispersions manufactured by ANO.

Advance NanoTek Chairman, Mr Lev Mizikovsky welcomed the news. "It's rewarding to see valued shareholders grasp the market opportunities that our revolutionary reef safe (harmful chemical free) products offer."

Ethical Zinc Executive Director, Mr Chris Silvestro added "Our ultimate desire is to play a part in the incredible growth in ZinClear sales currently being experienced to benefit all ANO shareholders and promote the many advantages offered by zinc oxide (in particular, ZinClear) as a superior UV protector."
