Meridian Energy appoints new General Manager of HR

6 March 2019

Meridian today announced Tania Palmer has been appointed as its new General Manager Human Resources.

Meridian Chief Executive Neal Barclay says that Tania will bring strong people and culture leadership from her previous roles in the energy and banking industries. "Her strength in areas of leadership development, and health and safety will add valuable expertise and experience to the Meridian executive team and across Meridian".

Tania is currently Chief People Officer at Contact Energy and is expected to start her role as Meridian's General Manager Human Resources on 5 June.
