We refer to on line subscription content published by the Gold Coast Bulletin on 12 March 2019. This article refers to a court proceeding with Mr Raptis and two associated building companies and the Queensland Building and Construction Commission (QBCC) being resolved in favour of Mr Raptis and two building companies. .

In the normal course we would have waited until the court had completed their process and formally issued the judgement in the coming week.

The three notices from the QBCC one to Mr Raptis and to two of his associated building companies have been set aside by the court.

We are pleased this matter has been resolved successfully as anticipated, and we continue to seek opportunities for the Group.

Yours faithfully

Malcolm Cory
Company Secretary
