Additions to the nickel mining team

Axiom Mining Limited ('Axiom' or 'the Company') is pleased to announce that with the ramping up of mining activities on its San Jorge mine, the Company has made the following appointments:

Executive General Manager – Tim Ashworth

Tim has spent the vast majority of his career in nickel mining around the world including in Zambia, Vietnam, Madagascar, Turkey, Indonesia, Philippines, Tanzania and Australia. His most recent role in Zambia involved him re-commissioning a nickel mine from care and maintenance back into commercial production. Tim's previous roles in the nickel industry included Country Manager, GM Operations and Principal Mining Engineer.

Tim has a Bachelor of Engineering (Mining) and a Western Australia First Class Mine Managers Ticket.

Tim commences work with Axiom this week and will be based on San Jorge Island, Solomon Islands, managing the whole project including mining, barging and shipping operations.

Michael James – Mine Manager

Michael brings over 30 years' experience in mining throughout Asia, Australia, PNG and the Pacific, predominately in copper, gold and nickel. His career involved working as Mine Supervisor, Technical Manager, Mine Manager and running his own mining consultancy for eight years.

Michael has been involved with mine operations, planning, designs and schedules, while maintaining environmental and geological controls for some of the world's largest mining projects including the Koniambo nickel mine in New Caledonia and other nickel mines in Indonesia for Antam Mining. Michael has also previously worked at the Goldridge mine in the Solomon Islands in the 1990's. More recently, he was Mine Technical Manager and Mine Manager at a gold mine in the Philippines. Michael is currently based on San Jorge Island, Solomon Islands.

Axiom CEO Ryan Mount said, "We are pleased to be able to bolster the talent of our nickel team. We are committed to having the right team in place for the San Jorge mine which will allow us to efficiently expand our current operations, and to other nickel opportunities in the Solomon Islands as they may become available to us."

Mike Strachan, who was General Manager during the initial development phase of the San Jorge mine, is now consulting to Axiom on an as-required basis.
