Microsoft partners with LiveTiles on major product release

Novartis signed as first major customer as part of the launch

- LiveTiles chosen by Microsoft as a key global launch partner of “home sites”
- As part of this launch, global pharmaceutical company Novartis announced its new global corporate intranet utilising SharePoint home sites and LiveTiles-owned Wizdom software
- Announcement further strengthens Microsoft relationship as LiveTiles pursues strong growth in its enterprise customer base

LiveTiles Limited (ASX:LVT) (LiveTiles or the Company), is pleased to announce that LiveTiles has been chosen by Microsoft as a key partner in the launch of their latest major product release at the Microsoft SharePoint North America Conference in Las Vegas earlier today.

Jeff Teper, Corporate Vice President, Office 365, Microsoft, has announced the introduction of “home sites” to the Modern SharePoint feature suite in his keynote speech at the SharePoint Conference in Las Vegas.¹

Wizdom customer, Novartis, the 5th largest pharmaceutical company in the world with 140,000 employees, will be an early adopter of the “home sites” feature.

Philip Martuccil, Director of Content & Channels at Novartis said: “Novartis is a leading global healthcare company committed to reimagining medicine. As part of its focused data and digital transformation, Novartis will launch a new global corporate intranet for its 100,000+ employees.”²

Dan Holme, Senior Product Marketing Director, SharePoint and OneDrive at Microsoft, said: “We’re excited that LiveTiles is a launch partner for SharePoint home sites. We are thrilled that LiveTiles, along with Wizdom and Hyperfish, are building on SharePoint innovations like home sites, to deliver unique experiences and solutions that empower our joint customers to achieve more.”³

LiveTiles, including Wizdom and Hyperfish, extends and enhances the SharePoint home sites experience to deliver powerful, personal and enterprise grade intranet experiences. These solutions have been built upon several years of deep experience and have now delivered some of the world’s largest intranets – including Novartis, PepsiCo and numerous other Fortune 500 companies.

Karl Redenbach, Chief Executive Officer and Co-Founder, LiveTiles, said: “Microsoft’s commitment to the evolution of SharePoint aligns perfectly with our own product roadmap. We are more than delighted to be chosen as a partner to launch and extend the home sites and Modern SharePoint capabilities for customers. This launch and new customer announcement have further strengthened the relationship between Microsoft and LiveTiles, and will drive even stronger joint sales and marketing activities to enterprise customers across the globe. LiveTiles is thrilled to support Novartis as a recently signed Wizdom customer as the Company continues to rapidly grow its global enterprise customer base.”
