

4 June 2019 – LandMark White Limited (ASX:LMW)

Update on Document Disclosure Incident

On 30 May 2019, LMW announced a secondary incident relating to the publication of documents on the web and then made a further announcement on 3 June 2019 providing more detailed information in relation to this matter.

As previously communicated, we do not believe that this constitutes a notifiable data breach for the purposes of the Privacy Act 1988 (Cth) and the Notifiable Data Breaches Scheme as there is limited private information contained in the documents.

Notwithstanding this assessment, as of Tuesday, 4 June 2019 the following clients have introduced temporary suspensions of instructions to LMW:

- Commonwealth Bank of Australia
- Australia & New Zealand Bank
- National Australia Bank
- Bankwest
- Bendigo & Adelaide Bank
- Suncorp
- HSBC
- Latrobe

The resulting loss of revenues will have a material impact on the performance of LMW but LMW is not able to provide the market with reliable guidance at the current time as it continues to work with the clients to establish a roadmap and timeline for lifting of the suspensions.

Accordingly, LMW has requested a trading halt on LMW securities.

LMW expects to make a further announcement before the ASX opens on 7 June 2019.

John Wise
Company Secretary
(02) 8823 6300 email john.wise@lmw.com.au

About LMW

Founded in 1982 and listed on the Australian Stock Exchange in 2003, LMW has a long and proud heritage of providing independent professional property services to people and companies across Australia.

LMW has over 400 highly-skilled people and offers a wide range of services which includes commercial and residential valuations, research, and property advice with a focus in providing unrivalled property services that minimise the risks to our clients.