Meridian announces departure of Chief Customer Officer

19 June 2019

Meridian Energy Limited today announced that Julian Smith, the Chief Customer Officer, has resigned.

Neal Barclay, the Chief Executive, said that Mr Smith has decided to leave the business for personal reasons.

“Julian has led a rapid transformation of our retail businesses as well as industry-leading reforms around removing Prompt Payment Discounts to ensure fairer power pricing for NZ households. He has built a sustainable platform to deliver profitable retail growth, increasing market share and margin, while delivering industry-leading customer satisfaction. We thank Julian for his significant contribution to the business, said Mr Barclay.

Mr Smith will leave the company on 4 October 2019.
