The Directors would like to thank Jeffrey for his valuable contribution to the Board during his tenure, particularly his contribution in relation to the Company's legal and commercial transactions which spanned a transformational period for the Company as it moved from exploration to development and mining at its San Jorge nickel mine.

Axiom's CEO, Ryan Mount said "On behalf of the Board, I would like to thank Jeffrey for his important and insightful contributions to the Company"

As previously announced, Axiom will be broadening its Board shortly with additional Directors as the Company focuses on its San Jorge nickel mine and other projects.
