IPH successfully completes acquisition of Xenith IP Group

- Largest acquisition by IPH
- Brings together two high-quality intellectual property services groups with compelling benefits for people, clients and shareholders
- Combined group employs over 1,000 staff in 27 offices across Asia Pacific

IPH Limited (“IPH”) is pleased to advise that the Scheme of Arrangement under which IPH has acquired all of the shares in the capital of Xenith IP Group Limited (“Xenith”) not already held by IPH, has been successfully implemented today.

As part of the consideration for the Scheme of Arrangement, IPH has today issued 15,581,683 ordinary shares. An updated Appendix 3B for the issue of these shares follows this announcement and replaces the Appendix 3B issued by IPH on 9 August 2019.

As a result, Xenith, including its leading intellectual property (IP) services firms are now part of the IPH Group.

The acquisition marks a major milestone in the continued implementation of IPH’s strategy to be the leading IP group in secondary IP markets and adjacent areas of IP, and is the largest acquisition in IPH’s history.

“We warmly welcome the Xenith businesses – Glasshouse Advisory, Griffith Hack, Shelston IP and Watermark - into the IPH group,” said Dr Andrew Blattman, CEO, IPH Limited.

“IPH has demonstrated a strong track record in successfully integrating acquisitions to create value for our shareholders and benefits for our clients and our people. We now look forward to creating further value and benefits for all stakeholders with the addition of Xenith to the IPH group,” he said.

The expanded IPH group now employs more than 1,000 people, working across 27 offices, in eight countries throughout Asia-Pacific.

“We believe IPH’s unique scale, experience and presence across Asia-Pacific, together with our highly qualified teams, provides clients with access to comprehensive and trusted IP services across the region. The expanded group will also provide enhanced career pathways for our people,” said Dr Blattman.

In November 2014, IPH became the first IP firm to list on the Australian Securities Exchange. Dr Blattman noted that IPH's corporate structure and ASX-listing had been significant factors in enabling the Group to access capital to harness opportunities for further growth, either through investment in its own business or through acquisitions.

"These investments have been critical to the expansion of our business and have enabled us to create a very strong platform for future growth.

"It also ensures our group businesses have the capability, resources and systems to deliver the highest quality service to clients and create opportunities for career progression and professional development for our people.

"The acquisition of Xenith is the latest chapter in this growth strategy and we now look forward to drawing on the strengths of each of the IPH group businesses for the benefit of our people, clients and shareholders."

As a result of the transaction, the Chief Executive Officer of Xenith IP, Mr Craig Dower, will be leaving the business effective 15 August 2019.

"I want to acknowledge Craig's contribution to Xenith and through the transaction process, and wish him every success for the future," said Dr Blattman.

IPH is the leading intellectual property services group in the Asia-Pacific region. The combined IPH group comprises eight brands: Spruson & Ferguson, Pizzeys, AJ Park, Griffith Hack, Shelston IP, Watermark, Glasshouse Advisory and Practice Insight.
