¹ Under Listing Rule 4.7.3, an entity must lodge with ASX a completed Appendix 4G at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX.

Listing Rule 4.10.3 requires an entity that is included in the official list as an ASX Listing to include in its annual report either a corporate governance statement that meets the requirements of that rule or the URL of the page on its website where such a statement is located. The corporate governance statement must disclose the extent to which the entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during the reporting period. If the entity has not followed a recommendation for any part of the reporting period, its corporate governance statement must separately identify that recommendation and the period during which it was not followed and state its reasons for not following the recommendation and what (if any) alternative governance practices it adopted in lieu of the recommendation during that period.

Under Listing Rule 4.7.4, if an entity chooses to include its corporate governance statement on its website rather than in its annual report, it must lodge a copy of the corporate governance statement with ASX at the same time as it lodges its annual report with ASX. The corporate governance statement must be current as at the effective date specified in that statement for the purposes of rule 4.10.3.

² "Corporate governance statement" is defined in Listing Rule 19.12 to mean the statement referred to in Listing Rule 4.10.3 which discloses the extent to which an entity has followed the recommendations set by the ASX Corporate Governance Council during a particular reporting period.

³ Mark whichever option is correct and then complete the page number(s) of the annual report, or the URL of the web page, where the entity's corporate governance statement can be found. You can, if you wish, delete the option which is not applicable.

Throughout this form, where you are given two or more options to select, you can, if you wish, delete any option which is not applicable and just retain the option that is applicable. If you select an option that includes "OR" at the end of the selection and you delete the other options, you can also, if you wish, delete the "OR" at the end of the selection.

2019 CORPORATE GOVERNANCE STATEMENT

This corporate governance statement sets out Tinybeans Group Ltd's (Company) current compliance with the ASX Corporate Governance Council's Corporate Governance Principles and Recommendations (ASX Principles and Recommendations). The ASX Principles and Recommendations are not mandatory. However, this corporate governance statement discloses the extent to which the Company has followed the ASX Principles and Recommendations. This corporate governance statement is current as at 28 August 2019 and has been approved by the board of the Company (Board).

ASX Principles and Recommendations		Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1.	Lay solid foundations for management and oversight
1.1.	A listed entity should disclose:	Yes	The Board is responsible for the corporate governance of the Company.
	(a) the respective roles and responsibilities of its board and management; and		The Board has adopted a Board Charter which outlines the manner in which its powers and responsibilities will be exercised and discharged, having regard to principles of good corporate governance and applicable laws. Pursuant to the Board Charter, the Board assumes responsibilities including, but not limited to the following:
	(b) those matters expressly reserved to the board and those delegated to management.		(a) considering and approving the strategy of the Company and its related companies (Group); (b) adopting an annual budget and monitoring financial performance including approving the annual and half year financial statements and reports; (c) approving major investments and monitoring the return on those investments; (d) monitoring the adequacy, appropriateness and operation of internal controls including reviewing and approving the Group's compliance systems and corporate governance principles; (e) providing continuous disclosure of information to the investment community, and making available information shareholders can reasonably require to make informed assessments of the Group's prospects; (f) reviewing and monitoring significant business risks and oversights and how they are managed; (g) monitoring the conduct of the relationship with key regulators to meet the Group's obligations; (h) determining delegations to committees, subsidiary boards and management and approving transactions in excess of delegated levels;

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
		(i) appointing and reviewing the performance of the chief executive officer (CEO) of the Company and from time to time any portfolio companies of the Group, including overseeing the remuneration, development and succession planning for the chief executive officers and management, while overseeing the operation of appropriate human resource management systems including remuneration; (j) assessing its own performance and that of individual Directors; (k) selecting and appointing new Directors; (l) considering, proving and endorsing major policies of the organisation including a code of conduct which promotes ethical behaviour and social responsibility; (m) overseeing the implementation of appropriate work health and safety systems; and (n) protecting and overseeing the enhancement of the reputation of the Company. A copy of the Board Charter is available on the Company's website at the following URL: https://tinybeans.com/investors/corporate-governance.html Pursuant to the Board Charter, the Board has delegated specific authorities to the Chairman. Subject to these delegated matters, the Chairman is authorised to exercise all the powers of the Directors, except with respect to the following: (a) approval of major elements of strategy including any significant change in the direction of that strategy; (b) approvals above delegated levels of credit limits, country risk exposures, equity risk limits, market risk limits, loans and encumbrances, equity investments and underwriting risk; (c) capital expenditure in excess of delegated levels or expenditure outside the ordinary course of business; (d) certain remuneration matters including material changes to remuneration policies; (e) adoption of the Company's annual budget; (f) approval of the interim and final accounts and related reports to the ASX; (g) specific matters in relation to continuous disclosure as defined in the Continuous Disclosure Policy; and (h) other matters as the Board may determine from time to time. The Company is committed to the circulation of relevant materials to Directors in a timely manner to facilitate Directors' participation in Board discussions on a fully informed basis. The Company intends to regularly review

		the balance of responsibilities between the Board and management to ensure that the division of functions remains appropriate to the needs of the Company.
1.2. A listed entity should: (a) undertake appropriate checks before appointing a person, or putting forward to security holders a candidate for election as a director; and (b) provide security holders with all material information in its possession relevant to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a director.	Yes	The Company undertakes backgrounds checks with regards to the person's character, experience, education, criminal record and bankruptcy history prior to nomination for election as a director. Any material adverse information revealed by these checks is released to security holders prior to the general meeting at which they can be elected. When an individual is nominated to be a director, their curriculum vitae with their relevant professional history and qualifications is circulated to the security holders of the Company.
1.3. A listed entity should have a written agreement with each director and senior executive setting out the terms of their appointment.	Yes	Directors and senior executives of the Company are given letters of appointment and/or service agreements prior to their engagement with the Company.
1.4. The company secretary of a listed entity should be accountable directly to the board, through the chair, on all matters to do with the proper functioning of the board.	Yes	The Company Secretary was appointed by and is responsible to the Board through the Chairman. The Chairman and the Company Secretary co-ordinate the Board agenda.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
1.5. A listed entity should: (a) have a diversity policy which includes requirements for the board or a relevant committee of the board to set measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity and to assess annually both the objectives and the entity's progress in achieving them; (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it; and (c) disclose as at the end of each reporting period the measurable objectives for achieving gender diversity set by the board or a relevant committee of the board in accordance with the entity's diversity policy and its progress towards achieving them, and either: (1) the respective proportions of men and women on the board, in senior executive positions and across the whole organisation (including how the entity has defined "senior executive" for these purposes); or (2) if the entity is a "relevant employer" under the Workplace Gender Equality Act, the entity's most recent "Gender Equality Indicators", as defined in and published under that Act.	No	The Company, at its current size and stage of development, has not found it necessary to create a diversity policy or to annually report on measurable objectives with respect to gender diversity. As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary in the future, the Board may consider adopting a policy.
1.6. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of the board, its committees and individual directors; and (b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	No	The Company has not found it necessary to disclose the process for evaluating the performance of the Board. As denoted in the Board Charter, however, performance evaluations of the Board as a group and of individual Directors will be undertaken annually by the Board. In particular, all Directors seeking re-election at an annual general meeting will be subject to a formal performance appraisal to determine whether the Board (with their absents themselves) recommends their re-election to shareholders.
1.7. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and	Yes	The Company did undertake a performance appraisal of each Director during the financial year ended 30 June 2019.
1.7. A listed entity should: (a) have and disclose a process for periodically evaluating the performance of its senior executives; and	No	The Company has not found it necessary to disclose the process for evaluating the performance of its senior executives given the current size of the Company. However,

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
(b) disclose, in relation to each reporting period, whether a performance evaluation was undertaken in the reporting period in accordance with that process.	Yes	the Board intends to regularly review the performance of its senior executives and address any issues that may emerge. The Company undertook a performance appraisal of its senior executives during the financial year ended 30 June 2019.
2. Structure the board to add value
2.1. The board of a listed entity should: (a) have a nomination committee which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a nomination committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs to address board succession issues and to ensure that the board has the appropriate balance of skills, knowledge, experience, independence and diversity to enable it to discharge its duties and responsibilities effectively.	No	Given the Company's current size and stage of development, the Company does not consider that it is practicable to have a separate nomination committee responsible for the appointment of Directors or to implement a corresponding nomination committee charter. The appointment of new Directors and undertakings of appropriate checks before appointment will be the responsibility of the entire Board. The Board will ensure that all material information to a decision on whether or not to elect or re-elect a Director is provided to security holders.
2.2. A listed entity should have and disclose a board skills matrix setting out the mix of skills and diversity that the Board currently has or is looking to achieve in its membership.	Yes	The Board strives to ensure that it is comprised of Directors with a blend of skills, experience and attributes appropriate for the Company and its business. The Company has a board skills matrix, setting out the mix of skills and diversity of the current Directors of the Company. A copy of the Board Skills Matrix is available on the Company website https://tinybeans.com/investors/corporate-governance.html
2.3. A listed entity should disclose: (a) the names of the directors considered by the board to be independent directors; (b) if a director has an interest, position, association or relationship of the type described in Box 2.3 but the board is of the opinion that	Yes	The Board has reviewed the position and associations of each of the six Directors in office and has determined that John Dougall, Megan Gardner and Mary Godfrey are independent. In making this determination, the Board has had regard to the independence criteria in the ASX Principles and Recommendations, and other facts, information and circumstances that the Board considers relevant. The Board assesses the independence of new

it does not compromise the independence of the director, the nature of the interest, position, association or relationship in question and an explanation of why the board is of that opinion; and (c) the length of service of each director.	Yes	Directors upon appointment and reviews their independence, and the independence of the other directors as appropriate. Information with respect to potential issues of independence may be disclosed to the market but no formal policy exists to ensure such disclosure. The Company has disclosed the details of each Director (including their length of service) in the Company's 2019 Annual Report.
2.4. A majority of the board of a listed entity should be independent directors.	Yes	The Board considers that three of the five Directors to be independent directors. The three directors considered independent are: • John Dougall; • Megan Gardner; and • Mary Godfrey.
2.5. The chair of the board of a listed entity should be an independent director and, in particular, should not be the same person as the CEO of the entity.	Yes	The Company's current Chairman, Mr John Dougall, is considered an independent Director by the Board of the Company, and Mr Dougall satisfies the ASX Principles and Recommendations definition of an independent Director. Mr Dougall is not the same person as the CEO of the Company.
2.6. A listed entity should have a program for inducting new directors and provide appropriate professional development opportunities for directors to develop and maintain the skills and knowledge needed to perform their role as directors effectively.	Yes	The Company has an induction programme for each new Director upon appointment. This includes meeting with members of the existing Board, Company Secretary, management and other relevant executives to familiarise themselves with the Company, its procedures and prudential requirements, and Board practices and procedures. On an ongoing basis, and subject to approval of the Chairman, Directors may request and undertake training and professional development, as appropriate, at the Company's expense.
3. Promote ethical and responsible decision-making
3.1. A listed entity should: (a) have a code of conduct for its directors, senior executives and employees; and (b) disclose that code or a summary of it.	Yes Yes	The Board is committed to the establishment and maintenance of appropriate ethical standards in order to instil confidence in both clients and the community in the way the Company conducts its business. These standards are encapsulated in the Code of Conduct which outlines how the Company expects each person who represents it to behave and conduct business. A copy of the Code of Conduct is available on the Company's website at the following URL: https://tinybeans.com/investors/corporate-governance.html
4. Safeguard integrity in financial reporting
4.1. The board of a listed entity should: (a) have an audit committee which: (1) has at least three members, all of whom are non-executive directors and a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, who is not the chair of the board, and disclose:	No	The Company, considering its current size and stage of development, does not have a separately constituted audit committee. The Company in general meetings is responsible for the appointment of external auditors of the Company, and the Board from time to time will review the scope, performance and fees of those external auditors.

ASX Principles and Recommendations	Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
(3) the charter of the committee; (4) the relevant qualifications and experience of the members of the committee; and (5) in relation to each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have an audit committee, disclose that fact and the processes it employs that independently verify and safeguard the integrity of its corporate reporting, including the processes for the appointment and removal of the external auditor and the rotation of the audit engagement partner.	Yes
4.2. The board of a listed entity should, before it approves the entity's financial statements for a financial period, receive from its CEO and CFO a declaration that, in their opinion, the financial records of the entity have been properly maintained and that the financial statements comply with the appropriate accounting standards and give a true and fair view of the financial position and performance of the entity and that the opinion has been formed on the basis of a sound system of risk management and internal control which is operating effectively.	Yes	The Company has received a declaration from the CEO and CFO that, in their opinion, the financial records have been properly maintained and comply with the proper standards.
4.3. A listed entity that has an AGM should ensure that its external auditor attends its AGM and is available to answer questions from security holders relevant to the audit.	Yes	An external auditor will be present at the Company's annual general meeting and be available to answer questions from security holders relevant to audit.
5. Make timely and balanced disclosure
5.1. A listed entity should: (a) have a written policy for complying with its continuous disclosure obligations under the Listing Rules; and (b) disclose that policy or a summary of it.	Yes	The Company is committed to providing timely, complete and accurate disclosure of information to allow a fair, and well-informed market in its securities and compliance with the continuous disclosure requirements imposed by law, including the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules. A copy of the Company's Continuous Disclosure Policy is available at the following URL: https://tinybeans.com/investors/corporate-governance.html
6. Respect the rights of shareholders

ASX Principles and Recommendations		Comply (Yes/No)	Explanation
6.1.	A listed entity should provide information about itself and its governance to investors via its website.	Yes	The Company provides information about itself and its governance to its investors on the Company's website via the following URL: https://tinybeans.com/investors/ . The Company will regularly update the website and contents therein as deemed necessary.
6.2.	A listed entity should design and implement an investor relations program to facilitate effective two-way communication with investors.	Yes	The Company has a formal investor and media relations plan in place whereby the Company will provide regular news flow to keep investors and media updated and engaged.
6.3.	A listed entity should disclose the policies and processes it has in place to facilitate and encourage participation at meetings of security holders.	Yes	The Company has a formal shareholder communications policy in place whereby information will be communicated to shareholders through: (a) continuous disclosure of all relevant financial and other information to the ASX; (b) publishing information on the Company's website at www.tinybeans.com; (c) periodic disclosure through the Annual Report and the half year financial report; (d) notice of meetings and explanatory material; and (e) the AGM and other general meetings.
6.4.	A listed entity should give security holders the option to receive communications from, and send communications to, the entity and its security registry electronically.	Yes	The Company encourages shareholders to register for receipt of announcements and updates electronically.
7.	Recognise and manage risk
7.1.	The Board of a listed entity should:	No	The Company, due to its size and current stage of development, does not have a separately constituted risk committee. As the Company develops, the Board intends to review its practices, and if deemed necessary, establish a risk committee. The Board is currently responsible for the oversight and management of all material business risks. The Board's collective experience will enable accurate identification of the principal risks that may affect the Company's business. Key operational risks and their management will be recurring items for deliberation at Board meetings. The risk profile can be expected to change and procedures adapted as the Company develops and it grows in size and complexity.
	(a) have a committee or committees to oversee risk, each of which: (1) has at least three members, a majority of whom are independent directors; and (2) is chaired by an independent director, and disclose: (3) the charter of the committee; (4) the members of the committee; and (5) as at the end of each reporting period, the number of times the committee met throughout the period and the individual attendances of the members at those meetings; or (b) if it does not have a risk committee or committees that satisfy (a) above, disclose that fact and the processes it employs for overseeing the entity's risk management framework.
