2019 Annual General Meeting

Further to the release made on 30 July 2019, the Directors of Integrated Green Energy Solutions Limited (“IGES” or “the Company”) would like to advise that in order to minimise its corporate administration the previously announced Extraordinary General Meeting will be combined with the upcoming Annual General Meeting. The Company’s Annual General Meeting is scheduled to be held on Friday 15 November 2019.

The Directors look forward to providing shareholders with a full update on the Company and its operations at this meeting, as well as provide members the opportunity to ask questions and vote on the resolutions presented.

Formal notice and the agenda for the meeting will be distributed in the coming weeks.
