In order to commercialise a project and generate future revenues, additional funding will be required.

² The Company's actual operating cash outflows were $492,000 (September 2019 quarter) and are forecast to be $298,000 (December 2019 quarter), including discretionary expenditure.

Cash on hand at 30 September 2019 totalled $437,000.

The Company is in discussions with potential investors to raise funds and expects that September 2019 cash on hand, aggregated with fund raising expected during the December 2019 quarter, will cover expected non-discretionary cash outflows during the December 2019 quarter.

The Company would raise additional funds before committing to further operating cash outflows of the same scale.

The Company expects that funds will be available to finance future operations and that realisation of assets and settlement of liabilities will occur in the normal course of business.

Whilst it develops its projects, the Company expects to continue to have negative operating cash flows

Notes

- The quarterly report provides a basis for informing the market how the entity's activities have been financed for the past quarter and the effect on its cash position. An entity that wishes to disclose additional information is encouraged to do so, in a note or notes included in or attached to this report.
- 2. If this quarterly report has been prepared in accordance with Australian Accounting Standards, the definitions in, and provisions of, AASB 6: Exploration for and Evaluation of Mineral Resources and AASB 107: Statement of Cash Flows apply to this report. If this quarterly report has been prepared in accordance with other accounting standards agreed by ASX pursuant to Listing Rule 19.11A, the corresponding equivalent standards apply to this report.
- 3. Dividends received may be classified either as cash flows from operating activities or cash flows from investing activities, depending on the accounting policy of the entity.
