Chairman's letter

13 December 2019

Dear KBC Shareholders,

Cash Offer by WAM Active to acquire your KBC Shares

WAM Active Limited (ASX: WAA) is offering to acquire all of your fully paid ordinary shares in Keybridge Capital Limited (ASX: KBC) through the Offer contained in this Bidder's Statement.

The Offer Consideration is 6.5 cents cash for each KBC Share you own.

The Offer Price represents a premium of 7.3% to KBC's unaudited after-tax net tangible asset backing (NTA) as at 31 October 2019, the last reported NTA prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement.

The Offer Price is compelling given KBC has historically traded at a discount to NTA. In fact, over the three-year period from 31 July 2016 to 30 June 2019 (the last full month during which KBC shares traded on), KBC Shares have, on average, traded at a 30% discount to KBC's prevailing NTA. See Section 3.2 of this Bidder's Statement for further details.

In addition to providing KBC Shareholders with the ability to exit their investment at a premium to NTA, the cash Offer provides certainty of value for KBC Shareholders. Certainty of value is attractive when considered in the context of the significant risks and uncertainties of remaining a KBC Shareholder. These include:

1. Continued Erosion of Shareholder Value: KBC's NTA has fallen 69% during the period 31 December 2016 to 31 October 2019 (the last reported NTA prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement).
2. Excessive Operating Expenses: Notwithstanding KBC's declining financial performance, its operating expenses remain high. For the financial year ending 30 June 2019, KBC's operating expenses were in excess of 18.8% of the company's 30 June 2019 NTA, of which over 40% was paid to management, directors and related parties. See Section 3.5 of this Bidder's Statement for further details.
3. Significant Corporate Governance Issues: KBC Shareholders are exposed to protracted corporate governance issues. The ASX is currently conducting an inquiry into KBC's 2019 Financial Report and KBC Shares are suspended from trading. The full scope of the ASX's inquiries are not publicly known. KBC Shareholders face great uncertainty regarding the outcome of this inquiry and the recommencement of trading for KBC Shares.

KBC's 2019 Financial Report raised material concerns in relation to KBC's corporate governance, with KBC's auditor (Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu (Deloitte)) issuing a disclaimer of opinion in relation to the 2019 Financial Report. Deloitte noted their inability to satisfy themselves as to the integrity of KBC's books and records and, in particular, whether certain transactions recorded in KBC's accounting records were appropriately authorised and undertaken for KBC's benefit.

4. Uncertainty as to KBC's Board Composition: The composition of KBC's board of directors has been a contentious issue since July 2019 when members of the KBC board purported to remove Mr Patton as chairman and appoint Mr Johnson as his replacement.

Two of KBC's three largest shareholders, Bentley and Australian Style Group Pty Limited, convened separate extraordinary general meetings of KBC Shareholders to consider resolutions to appoint and remove certain KBC directors. The results of the meeting convened by Australian Style Group Pty Limited were challenged under section 1322 of the Corporations Act. If this challenge is successful, the results may be reversed and resolutions to remove Mr Johnson and Mr Cato may be passed. At the date of this Bidder's Statement, the outcome of the challenge remains unclear. The second meeting, after being adjourned by the KBC chairman, was withdrawn by Bentley and cancelled by KBC.

On 14 October 2019, the date the extraordinary general meetings convened by Australian Style Group Pty Limited and Bentley were scheduled to occur, it was announced that the KBC directors had filled two casual vacancies on the board. Mr Richard Dukes, was appointed as non-executive director and Mr Nicholas Bolton, was appointed as Managing Director. Mr Bolton has previously been disqualified by ASIC from managing corporations for three years.

One half of the KBC Board, Mr John Patton, Mr Jeremy Kriewaldt and Mr Richard Dukes, will stand for re-election at the upcoming annual general meeting to be held on 19 January 2020.

The annual general meeting was originally to be held on 29 November 2019 but was postponed due to the notice of meeting failing to incorporate a necessary 'spill' resolution to vote on the re-election of the KBC board of directors should KBC have received a second 'strike' on its remuneration report.

5. Lack of Liquidity: Historically, KBC Shares have been very thinly traded. Of the total shares on issue, 92% of KBC Shares are held by the top 20 KBC Shareholders.

From 1 January 2019 to the close of trading on 15 July 2019 (the last trading day before KBC Shares were placed into suspension by ASX), a total of approximately 6,417,766 KBC Shares were traded (excluding 930,754 KBC Shares purchased by WAM Active or its Associates). This represents only 4.1% of KBC Shares on issue.

For these reasons, the WAM Active Directors believe the Offer represents an attractive opportunity for KBC Shareholders to realise their investment in KBC for cash at a premium of 7.3% to the last reported NTA of KBC.

Conditions to the Offer

The Offer is conditional on WAM Active acquiring a Relevant Interest in at least 50.1% of the issued capital of KBC and certain other customary conditions, including there being no material adverse change, no regulatory action or decision and no prescribed occurrences. See Section 10.7 for further details of the conditions.

How to accept the Offer

If you choose to accept the Offer you can either direct your Broker to accept for your CHES Holding, or complete and sign the enclosed Acceptance Form and return it in the reply paid envelope so that it is received before the closing date.

You will not have to pay any brokerage to accept the Offer (you may incur brokerage fees if you choose to sell your KBC Shares on market (assuming that KBC Shares are reinstated to quotation on the ASX) or if you instruct your Broker to accept the Offer on your behalf).

The Offer is scheduled to close at 7:00pm (Sydney time) on [*].

If you require additional assistance, please call Wilson Asset Management's Chief Financial Officer Jesse Hamilton on 0401 944 807 or Head of Operations Martyn McCathie on 0433 312 630.

Yours faithfully

Geoff Wilson AO
Chairman

What to do next? You should read this Bidder's Statement in its entirety before making a decision as to whether or not to accept the Offer for your KBC Shares.
If you wish to accept the Offer, please see Section 10 of this Bidder's Statement.

Further information For questions about your KBC Shares, the Offer, or how to accept the Offer please refer to the remainder of this Bidder's Statement or please call Wilson Asset Management's Chief Financial Officer Jesse Hamilton on 0401 944 807 or Head of Operations Martyn McCathie on 0433 312 630.

The above information is a summary only of key elements of this Bidder's Statement. KBC Shareholders should read this Bidder's Statement in its entirety before making any decision in relation to the Offer.

Why you should accept the Offer

1. WAM Active's Offer is at an attractive cash price

The all cash consideration of 6.5 cents per KBC Share is for all KBC Shares that WAM Active and its Associates do not already own.

The Offer Price represents a compelling cash value for KBC Shareholders, representing a premium of 7.3% to KBC's NTA as at 31 October 2019 and 7.0% to KBC's NTA as at 30 September 2019, the last two reported NTAs prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement.

The Offer Price is particularly compelling given KBC has historically traded at a discount to NTA. In fact, over the three-year period from 31 July 2016 to 30 June 2019 (the last full month during which KBC Shares traded on ASX), KBC Shares traded at an average share price discount to NTA of 30%. See Section 3.2 of this Bidder's Statement for further details.

Source: KBC's monthly Net Asset Backing reports, as announced to the ASX and IRESS

KBC Shares have been suspended from trading on the ASX since 16 July 2019.

2. Cash Offer provides certainty compared to retaining KBC Shares

The certainty of receiving 6.5 cents cash per KBC Share should be considered against the risks and uncertainties of remaining a KBC Shareholder, including the uncertainty as to when or if KBC's suspension from trading may be lifted by the ASX and the ongoing uncertainty in relation to the board composition and corporate governance of KBC.

(a) Erosion of KBC Shareholder value

KBC's NTA has fallen 69% during the period 31 December 2016 to 31 October 2019 (the last reported NTA prior to the date of this Bidder's Statement).

Source: KBC's monthly Net Asset Backing reports, as announced to the ASX.

(b) Excessive Operating Expenses

KBC continues to incur considerable ongoing Operating Expenses, further eroding KBC Shareholder value. During the financial years ended 30 June 2017, 2018 and 2019, KBC incurred Operating Expenses in excess of $2 million per annum. For the financial year ended 30 June 2019, KBC's Operating Expenses were in excess of 18.8% of KBC's NTA at 30 June 2019, of which over 40% was paid to management, directors and related parties. See Section 3.5 of this Bidder's Statement for further details.

(c) KBC'S outlook is uncertain

Outcome of ASX enquiries uncertain: KBC Shares have been suspended from trading on the ASX since 16 July 2019. As announced on 17 October 2019, KBC Shares will remain suspended pending the outcome of the ASX's enquiries into, amongst other things, issues in relation to KBC's 2019 Financial Report.

The full scope of ASX's enquiries are not publicly known. There is no certainty that normal trading of KBC Shares will recommence or, if it does, when this might occur, or what conditions, if any, ASX may impose.

Board composition is uncertain: The composition of KBC's board of directors has been a contentious issue since July 2019 when members of the KBC board purported to remove Mr Patton as chairman and appoint Mr Johnson as his replacement.

Two of KBC's three largest shareholders, Bentley and Australian Style Group Pty Limited, convened separate extraordinary general meetings of KBC Shareholders to consider resolutions to appoint and remove certain KBC directors. The result of first meeting remain uncertain, the validity having been challenged under section 1322 of the Corporations Act. The second meeting, initially adjourned pending the outcome of the challenge to the first meeting's result, was ultimately withdrawn.

On 14 October 2019, it was announced that the KBC directors had appointed two casual vacancies to the board. Mr Richard Dukes, as non-executive Director and Mr Nicholas Bolton, as Managing Director. Mr Bolton was previously disqualified by ASIC from managing corporations for three years.

One half of the KBC Board, Mr John Patton, Mr Jeremy Kriewaldt and Mr Richard Dukes, will stand for re-election at the upcoming annual general meeting to be held on 19 January 2020.

The annual general meeting was originally to be held on 29 November 2019 but was postponed due to the notice of meeting failing to incorporate a necessary 'spill' resolution to vote on the re-election of the KBC board of directors should KBC have received a second 'strike' on its remuneration report.

Uncertainties with KBC's Financial Reporting: KBC's auditor, Deloitte Touche Tohmatsu (Deloitte), issued a disclaimer of opinion in relation to KBC's 2019 Financial Report. Deloitte noted their inability to satisfy themselves as to the integrity of KBC's books and records and, in particular, whether certain transactions recorded in KBC's accounting records were appropriately authorised and undertaken for KBC's benefit.

Note 9 of KBC's 2019 Financial Report suggests that KBC has $5,171,756 of 'other assets'. Included in this other asset balance is an item classified as an advance of $5,000,000. Deloitte have been unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence and KBC failed to provide the underlying agreements in respect of this advance to enable them to determine whether it will be recoverable by KBC. No announcement has been made by KBC to its shareholders regarding the nature of this material 'asset' advanced by KBC. This is critical given this advance represents roughly 41.5% of the total fair value attributed to all assets held by KBC at 30 June 2019.

On page 69 of the 2019 Financial Report, Deloitte highlight the following "During and subsequent to the end of the financial year, a series of allegations have been made by directors and other key management personnel in respect of a range of issues including alleged breaches of directors' duties under the Corporations Act 2001, transactions being undertaken without appropriate authority or for a proper purpose, and certain directors being denied access to the Group's books and records".

Deloitte was unable to obtain sufficient appropriate audit evidence to enable it to opine on:

- (i) whether KBC's 2019 Financial Report provided a true and fair view of KBC's financial position as at 30 June 2019 or the financial performance for the period then ended;

- (ii) whether KBC's 2019 Financial Report complies with Australian Accounting Standards and Corporations Regulations 2001;
- (iii) whether KBC has kept sufficient records to enable the 2019 Financial Report to be prepared and audited; or
- (iv) the remuneration report included in pages 16 to 24 of the directors' report within the 2019 Financial Report.

The basis for Deloitte's disclaimer of opinion are detailed in full on pages 69 to 71 of the 2019 Financial Report. KBC Shares will remain suspended pending ASX's enquiries into, amongst other things, issues raised in the 2019 Financial Report.

3. The cash offer provides liquidity

Historically, KBC Shares are closely held and historically have been very thinly traded. Of the total shares on issue, over 65% of KBC Shares are held by three KBC Shareholders and their Associates (including WAM Active and members of the Wilson Asset Management Group). 92% of KBC Shares are held by the top 20 KBC Shareholders.

From 1 January 2019 to the close of trading on 15 July 2019 (the last trading day before KBC Shares were placed into suspension by ASX), approximately 6,417,766 KBC Shares on issue were traded (excluding 930,754 KBC Shares purchased by WAM Active or its Associates). This represents only 4.1% of KBC Shares on issue.

Depending on the level of acceptances received under the Offer, the market for KBC Shares may become even less liquid following the Offer.

The Offer provides KBC Shares with liquidity and represents an opportunity for all KBC Shareholders to sell their KBC Shares for cash at a premium to the last reported NTA of KBC.

4. There are risks associated with being a minority shareholder of KBC

Depending on the level of acceptances received under the Offer, the market for KBC Shares may become even less liquid following the Offer. This could make it more difficult for you to sell your KBC Shares at an attractive price in the future, should the shares recommence trading. It may also reduce the likelihood of a subsequent takeover bid for KBC from parties other than WAM Active.

After the Offer closes, if WAM Active's Voting Power in KBC is less than 90% of KBC, KBC Shares may trade below the Offer Price, should they recommence trading. On 6 December 2019 Mr John Patton made a Takeover Panel application in relation to the affairs of KBC which, if successful, would prohibit WAM Active from acquiring 100% of KBC Shares under the Offer. At the date of the Bidder's Statement, the Panel is yet to determine whether it will to hear Mr Patton's application.

If WAM Active becomes entitled to do so, it intends to compulsorily acquire the remaining KBC Shares WAM Active does not acquire under the Offer. If your KBC Shares are compulsorily acquired you will be paid later than KBC Shareholders who accept the Offer.

5. There is no competing offer

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, the Offer is the only available offer for all KBC Shares.

Key questions

This Section answers some key questions that you may have about the Offer and should only be read in conjunction with the entire Bidder's Statement.

The Offer extends to KBC Shares on issue at 7.00pm (Sydney time) on 13 December 2019 and any KBC Shares issued during the Offer Period<sup>1</sup>.

The Offer consideration is 6.5 cents cash for every KBC Share you hold.

1.3. What are the tax consequences if I accept the Offer?

Please consult your financial, tax or other professional adviser on the tax implications of accepting the Offer. However, a general summary of the likely Australian tax consequences is set out in Section 7.

CHESS Holdings

If your KBC Shares are in a CHESS Holding, to accept the Offer you must either:

- (a) instruct your Controlling Participant (usually your Broker) to accept the Offer on your behalf; or
- (b) complete, sign and return the enclosed Acceptance Form in accordance with the instructions on it.

No, you can only accept the Offer for all of your holding. Your acceptance will be treated as being for all your KBC Shares plus any additional KBC Shares registered as held by you at the date your acceptance is processed.

<sup>1</sup> The suspension of KBC Shares triggered an event of default under the terms of its convertible redeemable promissory notes (CRPN). In response to KBC's default notice, members of the Wilson Asset Management Group demanded KBC redeem all CRPNs held by members of the Wilson Management Group in cash. As a result of KBC's suspension not being lifted before 21 October 2019, KBC is obliged to redeem or convert CRPNs having a face value of circa $6.7 million. KBC has processed the early redemption of 397,944 CRPN's, with those redemptions being satisfied in full with cash. Three outstanding redemption requests relating to 6,352,264 CRPN's have been accepted however KBC has yet to determine if it will satisfy these redemptions with cash or process a conversion of these notes to ordinary shares. A defeating condition will be triggered if KBC elects to convert the CRPNs after the date of this Bidder's Statement.

1.6. Are there any conditions to the Offer?

Yes, the Offer is subject to the following Conditions:

- (a) 50.1% minimum acceptance before the end of the Offer Period;
- (b) no regulatory action or decision is made, announced, commenced or threatened;

Please see Section 10.7 for further details of the Conditions to the Offer.

1.7. What happens if I accept the Offer?

Once you accept the Offer in respect of all of your KBC Shares, you will not be able to sell those KBC Shares or, once the Offer is declared unconditional, otherwise deal with the Rights attaching to those KBC Shares, subject to your limited statutory rights to withdraw your acceptance in certain circumstances.

1.8. What happens if I do not accept the Offer?

Subject to what is stated below, you will remain the holder of your KBC Shares if you do not accept the Offer.

If WAM Active obtains a Relevant Interest of at least 90% of the KBC Shares (by number) on issue at any time during the Offer Period and the Conditions are satisfied or waived, WAM Active intends to proceed to compulsorily acquire your KBC Shares if you have not accepted the Offer (see Section 4). At the conclusion of the compulsory acquisition process, you will receive 6.5 cents in cash for every 1 fully paid KBC Share which is compulsorily acquired. You will receive consideration for your KBC Shares sooner if you accept the Offer.

If WAM Active obtains an interest in less than 90% of KBC Shares, WAM Active will not be able to proceed to compulsorily acquire your KBC Shares. In this instance, you will remain a KBC Shareholder and it is likely that <sup>2</sup> The suspension of KBC Shares triggered an event of default under the terms of its CRPNs. In response to KBC's default notice, members of the Wilson Asset Management Group demanded KBC redeem all CRPNs held by members of the Wilson Management Group in cash. As a result of KBC's suspension not being lifted before 21 October 2019, KBC is obliged to redeem or convert CRPNs having a face value of circa $6.7 million. KBC has processed the early redemption of 397,944 CRPN's, with those redemptions being satisfied in full with cash. Three outstanding redemption requests relating to 6,352,264 CRPN's have been accepted however KBC has yet to determine if it will satisfy these redemptions with cash or process a conversion of these notes to ordinary shares. A defeating condition will be triggered if KBC elects to convert the CRPNs after the date of this Bidder's Statement.

KBC Shares will be thinly traded, should KBC's Shares recommence trading on the ASX. KBC Shares may trade below the Offer Price. WAM Active's intentions if it has an interest in less than 90% of KBC Shares are described in Section 4.

1.9. Can I withdraw my acceptance?

Under the terms of the Offer, you cannot withdraw your acceptance unless a withdrawal right arises under the Corporations Act. Such a withdrawal right will arise if, after you accept the Offer, WAM Active varies the Offer in a way that postpones for more than one month the time when WAM Active has to pay you under the Offer.

1.10. When does the Offer close?

The Offer is currently scheduled to close at 7:00 pm (Sydney time) on [*], unless extended or withdrawn.

1.11. Can WAM Active extend the Offer Period?

Yes, the Offer can be extended by WAM Active or otherwise in accordance with the Corporations Act. You will be sent written notice of any extension, as required by the Corporations Act.

1.12. If I accept the Offer, when will I receive the cash consideration?

If you accept this Offer, WAM Active will pay to you the cash consideration to which you are entitled on or before the earlier of:

- (a) the day one month after you accept this Offer or, if this Offer is subject to the Conditions when accepted, one month after the contract resulting from your acceptance becomes unconditional; and
- (b) the day 21 days after the end of the Offer Period, provided that the Offer has become unconditional.

Full details of when you will be paid your cash consideration are set out in Section 10.6.

1.13. Will I need to pay brokerage or stamp duty if I accept the Offer?

You will not pay any stamp duty on accepting the Offer.

If your KBC Shares are registered in an Issuer Sponsored Holding in your name and you deliver them directly to WAM Active, you will not incur any brokerage connected with you accepting the Offer.

If your KBC Shares are in a CHESS Holding or you hold your KBC Shares through a bank, custodian or other nominee, you should ask your Controlling Participant (usually, your Broker or the bank, custodian or other nominee) whether it will charge any transaction fees or service charges connected with you accepting the Offer.

To the extent permitted by law, WAM Active does not make any representation or warranty, express or implied, as to the currency, accuracy or completeness of such information.

The primary sources of information about KBC used by WAM Active are as follows:

- (a) annual and interim financial reports to KBC Shareholders;
- (b) announcements issued by KBC through the ASX; and
- (c) KBC's website.

3.2. Overview of KBC and its principal business activities

KBC is an investment and financial services group with a portfolio of listed and unlisted investments/loan assets including private equity (US), life insurance (New Zealand), property and funds management sectors and strategic holdings in HHY Fund (ASX:HHY), Molopo Energy Limited (ASX:MPO), Metgasco Limited (ASX: MEL) and Yowie Group Limited (ASX:YOW).

KBC Shares have been suspended from trading since 16 July 2019. The ASX announced on 17 October 2019 that KBC Shares will remain suspended pending the outcome of the ASX's enquiries into, amongst other things, issues in relation to KBC's 2019 Financial Report. The full scope of the ASX's enquiries are not publicly known. There is no certainty that normal trading of KBC Shares will recommence or, if it does, when this might occur.

KBC Shares have historically traded at a significant discount to their reported NTA. During the financial years ended 30 June 2017, 2018 and 2019, KBC Shares have traded at an average 30% discount to NTA.

3.3. Directors

As at the date of this Bidder's Statement, there are there are six directors of KBC, being:

- (a) Mr John Patton - Chairman, Executive Chairman, General Manager, Company Secretary;
- (b) Mr Nicholas Bolton – CEO, Managing Director;
- (c) Mr Richard Dukes – non-executive director;
- (d) Mr William Johnson – non-executive director;
- (e) Mr Simon Cato - non-executive director; and
- (f) Mr Jeremy Kriewaldt - non-executive director.

Material uncertainty regarding KBC's board of directors

The composition of KBC's board of directors has been a contentious issue since July 2019 when members of the KBC board purported to remove Mr Patton as chairman and appoint Mr Johnson as his replacement.

The Federal Court of Australia ruled on 11 October 2019 that Mr Patton was not validly removed, and therefore remains the chairman of KBC.

Two of KBC's three largest shareholders, Bentley and Australian Style Group Pty Limited, convened separate extraordinary general meetings of KBC Shareholders to consider resolutions to appoint and remove certain KBC directors. The results of the first meeting, specifically the resolutions to remove Mr William Johnson and Mr Simon Cato (representatives of Bentley) have been challenged under section 1322 of the Corporations Act. If this challenge is successful, the results may be reversed and both resolutions may be passed. As at the date of this Bidder's Statement the outcome of this challenge remain unknown. The second meeting, after being adjourned the KBC chairman, was withdrawn on 30 October 2019.

On 14 October 2019, the date the meetings convened by Bentley and Australian Style Group Pty Limited were scheduled to be held, it was announced that KBC had appointed two casual vacancies to the board. Mr Richard Dukes, as non-executive Director and Mr Nicholas Bolton, as Managing Director.

Mr Duke is required to retire and stand for re-election at KBC's annual general meeting, scheduled to be held on 19 January 2019. Mr John Patton and Mr Jeremy Kriewaldt will also stand for re-election at this meeting. However, Mr Bolton, despite previously having been disqualified by ASIC from managing corporations, will not put himself forward for election by KBC Shareholders at KBC's annual general meeting.

The annual general meeting was originally to be held on 29 November 2019 but was postponed due to the notice of meeting failing to incorporate a necessary 'spill' resolution to vote on the re-election of the KBC board of directors should KBC have received a second 'strike' on its remuneration report.

4. WAM Active's intentions

4.1. General

This Section sets out WAM Active's intentions in relation to:

- (a) the continuation of KBC's business;
- (b) any significant changes to be made to KBC's business, including any redeployment of KBC's assets; and
- (c) the future employment of KBC's employees.

WAM Active's intentions are based on the information known, and the circumstances that exist, at the date of this Bidder's Statement.

WAM Active has reviewed information in the public domain concerning KBC, its business and the general business environment in which it operates. Based on its review of that material, and on its current assessment of KBC's operations, WAM Active's intentions in relation to KBC are summarised below. Statements set out in this Section are statements of current intention only which may change as new information becomes available or circumstances change.

4.2. Strategic Review

As WAM Active does not currently have access to all material information, facts and circumstances which it considers necessary to assess the operational, commercial, taxation and financial implications of its current intentions, final decisions on these matters have not been made. Upon completion of the Offer, WAM Active proposes to conduct a review of KBC's strategy, operations, activities, assets and employees of KBC in light of the information which then becomes available to it (Strategic Review).

This Strategic Review is expected to focus on matters which have not been publicly disclosed, the various concerns raised by Deloitte in KBC's 2019 Financial Report as well as exploring avenues for returning capital to KBC Shareholders.

WAM Active's current intentions in relation to the employees and directors of KBC are set out below. At this stage no decision has been made to support the continuation of KBC's investment strategy, nor has a decision made to retain or dispose of any assets held by KBC.

Final decisions will only be reached in light of all material facts and circumstances. Accordingly, the statements set out in this Section are statements of current intention only which may change as new information becomes available or circumstances change.

4.3. WAM Active's intentions upon controlling 90% or more of KBC Shares

This Section sets out WAM Active's intentions if it controls 90% or more of KBC Shares and becomes entitled to proceed to compulsory acquisition of KBC Share under the Corporations Act.

- (a) WAM Active currently intends to proceed to compulsory acquire the remaining KBC Shares;
- (b) WAM Active will seek to remove KBC from the Official List of the ASX;
- (c) WAM Active intends to terminate the employment of KBC's employees and replace all KBC directors with nominees of the Wilson Management Group although as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, it has not made any decision as to who would be nominated for appointment;
- (d) WAM Active intends to undertake the Strategic Review.

4.4. WAM Active's intentions upon controlling more than 50.1% but less than 90% of KBC Shares

This Section sets out WAM Active's intentions if, by virtue of acceptance of the Offer, it was to gain effective control of KBC without becoming entitled to compulsorily acquire the outstanding KBC Shares.

If WAM Active acquires a Relevant Interest in KBC of at least 50.1% but less than 90%, its current intentions are as set out below.

- (a) KBC will become a controlled entity of WAM Active;
- (b) WAM Active intends to undertake the Strategic Review;
- (c) Subject to the Corporations Act, WAM Active intends to replace all directors with nominees of the Wilson Management Group although as at the date of this Bidder's Statement, it has not made any decision as to who would be nominated for appointment;
- (d) WAM Active may seek to remove KBC from the Official List of the ASX;
- (e) WAM Active may, at some later time, acquire further KBC Shares in a manner consistent with the Corporations Act;
- (f) If WAM Active becomes entitled at some later time to exercise general compulsory acquisition rights under Part 6A.2 of the Corporations Act, it may exercise those rights; and
- (g) WAM Active intends to undertake the activities referred to in this Section 4.4 to the extent permitted by its control of KBC.

4.5. WAM Active's intentions upon controlling 50% or less of KBC Shares

If WAM Active does not achieve a Relevant Interest in more than 50% of KBC, to the extent possible through its non-controlling holding of KBC Shares, WAM Active will endeavour to give effect to the intentions set out in Section 4. However, WAM Active considers that its ability to effect the intentions set out in Section 4 will be significantly limited if WAM Active is unable to achieve a Relevant Interest in KBC of more than 50%.

WAM Active may consider acquiring additional KBC Shares under the "creep" provisions of Item 9 in section 611 of the Corporations Act (which provides that WAM Active and its Associates may acquire up to 3% of KBC Shares every 6 months) until it achieves a majority Voting Power. WAM Active has not yet decided whether it will acquire further KBC Shares as this will depend upon the extent to which WAM Active has the capacity to acquire further KBC Shares and market conditions at that time.

4.6. Limitations on intentions

The intentions and statements of future conduct set out in this Section 4 must be read as being subject to:

- (a) the law (including the Corporations Act) and the Listing Rules, including in particular the requirements of the Corporations Act and the Listing Rules in relation to conflicts of interest and "related party" transactions given that, if WAM Active gains control of KBC but does not acquire all of the KBC Shares, it will be treated as a related party of KBC for these purposes;
- (b) the legal obligation of the KBC directors at the time, including any nominees of WAM Active, to act in good faith and in the best interests of KBC and for proper purposes and to have regard to the interest of all KBC Shareholders; and
- (c) the outcome of the Strategic Review.

5. Sources of Offer consideration

5.1. Consideration under the Offer

The total amount that WAM Active would be required to pay for KBC Shares if WAM Active acquires all of the KBC Shares on issue on the date of this Bidder's Statement in which it and its Associates do not have a Relevant Interest at the Offer Price is approximately $7.92m.

The total cash consideration payable by WAM Active as described in this Section 5 excludes any costs payable by WAM Active in relation to the Offer.

5.2. Financial position of WAM Active

As at 30 November 2019, the investment portfolio of WAM Active comprised of 14.3% cash ($7.24m) and 85.7% in liquid investments listed on the ASX. WAM Active's cash reserves are currently insufficient for WAM Active to fund the total cash consideration under the Offer and the expected Offer costs. WAM Active's portfolio is comprised of highly liquid investments, which WAM Active can liquidate at short notice. Should WAM Active's cash reserves, as a result of normal business activities over the Offer Period, be insufficient to fully fund the total cash consideration and costs of the Offer, WAM Active will liquidate assets in order to fund the balance of the Offer consideration and/or costs.

5.3. WAM Active funding

The Offer is not subject to a financing condition.

WAM Active estimates that the total transaction costs associated with the Offer (other than the Offer Price payable for all KBC Shares) are not expected to exceed $100,000.

WAM Active intends to fund the cash consideration under the Offer using available cash reserves.

6. Risk factors

6.1. Risk factors associated with selling KBC Shares

KBC Shareholders who accept the Offer will receive cash as their Offer Consideration. Those who accept the Offer will no longer be exposed to the risks associated with KBC's operations and investment portfolio.

Investors should appreciate that owning KBC Shares involves various risks which can be broadly categorised into risks relating to the Offer, general investment risks and specific business risks.

Each of these broad categories are outlined below in the following sections.

6.2. Risks relating to the Offer

The following risk factors may arise as a result of the Offer and the acquisition of KBC Shares by WAM Active.

KBC information

In preparing the information on KBC included in this Bidder's Statement, WAM Active has relied only on publicly available information. WAM Active has not had direct access to KBC's directors or its auditors. KBC's auditor Deloitte issued a disclaimer of opinion in relation to the 2019 Financial Report. Deloitte, noted their inability to satisfy themselves as to the integrity of KBC's books. In addition, it is possible that additional risks may exist in relation to KBC's operations that are unknown to WAM Active.

Minority Shareholders in KBC

If you do not accept the Offer you may, depending on the level of acceptance of the Offer, become part of a minority in KBC. In such a case, the liquidity of KBC Shares may be further diminished, should KBC return to normal trading on the ASX.

WAM Active may be unable to or prevented from acquiring 100% of KBC Shares under the Offer. On 6 December 2019 Mr John Patton made a Takeover Panel application in relation to the affairs of KBC which, if successful, would prohibit WAM Active from acquiring 100% of KBC Shares under the offer. As the date of the Bidder's statement, the Panel is yet to determine whether it will hear Mr Patton's application.

Taxation risks

Tax liabilities are the responsibility of each individual shareholder, and WAM Active is not responsible either for taxation or penalties incurred by KBC Shareholders. KBC Shareholders should consult their own taxation advisers to ascertain the tax implications of their investment.

Taxation considerations

The effects of taxation can be complex and may change over time. A summary of the current Australian income tax implications associated with acceptance of the Offer is outlined in Section 7. However, this summary is general in nature and the circumstances for each KBC Shareholder will vary. KBC Shareholders should seek professional taxation advice in relation to their own position.

This list is not exhaustive and KBC Shareholders should read this Bidder's Statement in full. If KBC Shareholders require further information on these risks, they should seek professional advice.

Ability to exercise effective control

WAM Active may acquire the ability to effectively control all decisions regarding KBC's future operations. This will be dependent upon the level of acceptances of the Offer and any other KBC Shares that may be acquired by WAM Active and its Associates on-market, or otherwise, in accordance with the Corporations Act.

Potential impact on subsequent bids

WAM Active's shareholding may become of such a size that a third party would not be able to successfully make a takeover bid for KBC without the support of WAM Active.

6.3. Specific risks relating to retaining KBC Shares

Risk on KBC's investments

KBC may invest in unlisted entities, entities with a limited trading history or entities with a small capital base. These investments may pose greater risk than investments in larger capitalised entities or entities on other market sectors. While the development of sound risk management procedures and sound due diligence can minimise the risks of investment in such entities, the risks are material and significant.

Business Risk

The profitability and success of KBC is highly dependent on the ability of its directors and executives to assess business risks and make appropriate investment decisions. At the date of this Bidder's Statement there is no certainty as to who these directors and executives will be.

No guarantee can be given in respect to future earnings of KBC or the earnings and capital appreciation of its investments.

Corporate governance risks

KBC Shareholders should consider the corporate governance risks caused by the ongoing uncertainty regarding KBC's board composition. See the Chairman's letter and Section 1 for more detailed discussion regarding corporate governance risks of KBC.

6.4. General risks relating to retaining KBC Shares

KBC Shareholders should be aware that retaining KBC Shares involves various risks. There are general risks associated with owning securities in publicly listed companies. The price of securities can go down as well as up due to factors outside the control of KBC. These factors include Australian and worldwide economic and political stability, natural disaster, performance of the Australian stock market as a whole, and Australian interest rates, foreign exchange, taxation and labour relations environments.

These are risks that are considered beyond the control of KBC.

Possible volatility of KBC Share price

The stock market has from time to time experienced significant price and volume fluctuations, which may be unrelated to the operating performance of particular companies.

The market price of KBC Shares may be volatile and may go down, as well as up. Factors that may have a significant impact on the market price and marketability of KBC Shares include announcements as to new acquisitions or investment opportunities, government regulation, variation in interest rates, the activities of any competitors, economic and other external factors, as well as fluctuations in KBC's operating results.

KBC Shares have been suspended from trading on the ASX since 16 July 2019. As announced on 17 October 2019, KBC Shares will remain suspended pending the outcome of the ASX's enquiries into, amongst other things, issues in relation to KBC's 2019 Financial Report.

Macroeconomic risks

The general state of the Australian and international economy as well as changes in taxation, monetary policy, interest rates, statutory requirements and currency exchange rates may influence the financial performance of KBC, and may affect the value of KBC Shares.

Regulatory changes

Changes to the regulatory environment, including the ASX, the Corporations Act and ASIC policy and their commercial application, may have a material adverse effect on a KBC Shareholder's investment in KBC Shares or otherwise have a material adverse effect on KBC's business and financial position.

6.5. Note on risk factors

The above list of general and specific risk factors should not be taken as exhaustive of the risks faced by KBC or by KBC Shareholders. The above factors, and others not specifically referred to above, may in the future materially affect the financial performance of KBC and the value of the KBC Shares.

7. Tax considerations

7.1. General

The following is a summary of the principal Australian tax consequences generally applicable to KBC Shareholders who dispose of their KBC Shares under the Offer for cash consideration. These consequences will depend on the individual circumstances of KBC Shareholders. You should make your own inquiries and seek independent professional advice on your circumstances.

The comments set out below are relevant only to those KBC Shareholders who hold their KBC Shares as capital assets for the purpose of investment and who do not (or would not) hold those KBC Shares in connection with the conduct of a business. Certain KBC Shareholders (such as those engaged in a business of trading or investment, those who acquired their KBC Shares for the purpose of resale at a profit or those which are banks, insurance companies, tax exempt organisations, superannuation funds or persons who acquired their KBC Shares in the course of their employment with KBC) will or may be subject to special or different tax consequences specific to their circumstances.

The following outline is based upon Australian taxation law and practice in effect as at the date of this Bidder's Statement. It is not intended to be an authoritative or complete statement or analysis of the taxation laws applicable to the particular circumstances of every KBC Shareholder. KBC Shareholders should seek independent professional advice regarding the taxation consequences of disposing of KBC Shares in the light of their own particular circumstances.

7.2. Australian resident KBC Shareholders

If you accept the Offer, you will be treated as having disposed of your KBC Shares. If you held them on capital account and you dispose of them, such a disposal is likely to constitute a CGT event for CGT purposes. Australian resident KBC Shareholders may make a capital gain or capital loss on the disposal of a KBC Share under the Offer.

In general, the capital gain or loss on the disposal of a KBC Share under the Offer is the difference between the value of the capital proceeds (i.e. the cash consideration received from WAM Active) and the cost base of the KBC Share. The cost base of KBC Shares is generally their cost of acquisition or deemed cost of acquisition. Certain other amounts associated with acquisition and disposal, such as brokerage or stamp duty, may be added to the cost base.

Capital gains and capital losses of a taxpayer in a year of income are aggregated to determine whether there is a net capital gain. Capital gains made during an income year are reduced by any capital losses made during that same income year. This may be reduced further by capital losses carried forward from prior years. A 'CGT Discount' may be available to reduce further the taxable gain for certain KBC Shareholders (see further below). The remaining net capital gain is included as assessable income in your income tax return and is subject to income tax at your marginal tax rate in the year in which you dispose of the KBC Shares. A net capital loss may be carried forward to be offset against future capital gains (not against other income for income tax purposes).

A KBC Shareholder who is an individual, complying superannuation entity or trustee of a trust may be eligible for a 'CGT Discount' if they acquired (or are deemed to have acquired) their KBC Shares at least 12 months before the time they accept the Offer. The CGT Discount is not available to companies, nor does it apply to KBC Shares owned (or deemed to be owned) for less than the relevant 12 month period.

7.3. Non-resident KBC Shareholders

KBC Shareholders who are not resident in Australia for tax purposes should also consider the tax consequences under the laws of their country of residence, as well as under Australian law. In Australia, the CGT rules only apply to non-residents of Australia in relation to 'taxable Australian property'. KBC Shares held by a KBC Shareholder who is not an Australian resident for tax purposes will be taxable Australian property only if the KBC Shares:

- (a) are an indirect Australian real property interest; or
- (b) were used at any time by the KBC Shareholder in carrying on a business through a permanent establishment in Australia; or
- (c) were included under a CGT deferral election when the KBC Shareholder ceased to be an Australian resident.

KBC Shares will generally not constitute an indirect Australian real property interest unless the total market value of Australian real property assets is more than 50% of the total market value of KBC's assets and the shareholding represents at least 10% (including associate interests) of either the total shares or voting right or distribution rights.

7.4. Stamp duty and GST

Any stamp duty payable pursuant to the Offer will be the liability of WAM Active and will be paid by WAM Active. KBC Shareholders may be charged GST on costs (such as advisor fees) that relate to their acceptance of the Offer. KBC Shareholders may be entitled to input tax credits for such costs, but should seek independent advice in relation to their individual circumstances.

7.5. Obtain your own taxation advice

Do not rely on the comments or the statements contained in this Bidder's Statement as advice about your own affairs. The taxation laws are complex and there could be implications in addition to those generally described in this Bidder's Statement.

Accordingly, consult your own tax advisers for advice applicable to your individual needs and circumstances. To the extent permitted by law, WAM Active does not accept any responsibility for tax implications for individual KBC Shareholders.

WAM Active is not a registered tax agent under the Tax Agent Services Act 2009 (Cth) and cannot provide tax advice to specific KBC Shareholders. KBC Shareholders should obtain tax advice from a registered tax agent on the consequences of accepting the Offer.

KBC have processed the early redemption of 397,944 CRPNs, with those redemptions being satisfied in full with cash. At the time of this Bidder's Statement three outstanding redemption requests relating to 6,352,264 CRPNs have been accepted however KBC has yet to determine if it will satisfy these redemptions with cash or process a conversion of these notes to ordinary shares. The Wilson Management Group holds 1,835,111 CRPNs and prior to announcing the Offer requested KBC redeem these CRPNs for cash. The Offer is subject to a condition that KBC does not elect to convert any CRPNs into KBC Shares before the end of Offer Period.
