Prophecy International announces dividend for H1 FY20

Strong growth and cash position enables dividend payment

H1 FY20 Dividend Announcement

- Unfranked Dividend announced of $0.005 cents (half a cent) per share
- Strong cash balance enables dividend payment
- Further investment in R&D for Snare

Prophecy is pleased to announce a dividend for H1 FY20 of half a cent ($0.005) per share.

Previous announcements have highlighted top line revenue growth of nearly 20% and EBITDA of $746K for FY20 H1. Cash of more than $4.7M at end of January has enabled the company to pay a dividend for the first half.

Brad Thomas, Prophecy CEO said, "As a mature business with a loyal group of shareholders it is pleasing to be in a position to be able to return a portion of our good result back to shareholders. We have achieved good growth in revenue, EBITDA and cash and can deliver a dividend as well as fund some additional investments in growth."

"We also plan to add additional development resources into the Snare business to drive faster product innovation, to enable Snare to keep pace with the market and to introduce new capability to customers sooner."

The company continues to be debt free and will continue to have a strong cash balance after the payment of a dividend.

All dividends will be unfranked. No dividend was paid in the same period last year.

Fully audited results should be available to the market in late February.
