

ASX Announcement

14 February 2020

Curragh mine to resume full operations

Coronado Global Resources Inc (ASX: CRN) provides an update on the recent incident at the Curragh mine in Queensland.

The Queensland Mines Inspectorate is now satisfied that all relevant tyre and wheel rim fitting at the mine can recommence safely and has lifted its directive suspending such activities. A return to work plan has been developed to ensure tyre work is resumed in a safe and controlled manner.

A detailed investigation was launched by the Inspectorate when Donald Rabbitt, an employee of Curragh mine contractor Thiess, was fatally injured during a tyre change activity in the main workshop on 12 January 2020.

The Company was supportive of the directive and all efforts to improve safety at its operations. Coronado continues to conduct its own investigation to understand the causes of the incident and continues to support the third-party reviews underway.

Production at Curragh had resumed in a phased approach from 17 January 2020. Following the resumption of tyre and wheel rim fitting activity, there are no ongoing restrictions on mine operations.

– Ends –

For further information please contact:

Investors

Matthew Sullivan
P: +61 412 157 276

Media

Brett Clegg
P: +61 487 436 985

About Coronado

Coronado Global Resources is one of the world's largest producers of high-quality metallurgical coal. Through our market-leading expertise, we operate some of the lowest cost mines in the industry. Coronado employs over 1700 people and our head office is located in Brisbane, Australia. Our operations are situated in two of the largest and most productive metallurgical coal basins in the world, the Bowen Basin in Queensland, Australia and the Central Appalachian region of the US, servicing customers throughout the Asia-Pacific, Americas and Europe. In total, we have eleven operating mines that are located close to transportation infrastructure. With a diversified production base and significant Reserves and Resource, Coronado is well placed to grow over many years to come. As a reliable supplier to the steel industry, we are dedicated to making a positive contribution to the global economy; and through our sustainable business practices, to the local economies and communities where we operate.