Director Resignation

Leading Smart Cities solution provider SenSen Networks Limited (ASX: SNS, “SenSen” or “the Company”) advises that Non-Executive Director, Mr Jason Ko, has tendered his resignation from the Board of the Company, with effect from 13 March 2020. An Appendix 3Z is attached.

Mr Ko has been a Director of SenSen since 2014 and he departs the Board on very good terms, having initially been the Board representative for strategic shareholder Speedshield Holdings. Over the period of his Directorship, Jason shared his unique blend of technical skill and business acumen, combined with a passion for IoT and the power of data.

SenSen CEO Subhash Challa said:

“I would sincerely like to thank Jason for the significant role he has played with the Company over the last six years, and especially during the more challenging times before SenSen listed in late 2017.”

“On behalf of the Board and the Company as a whole, we thank him for his valuable contribution and wish him all the success in his next endeavours”.

As SenSen pursues its global expansion strategy and particularly in the US, the Company has commenced a search to complement the Board with suitably qualified senior level Directors possessing deep technical knowledge and strategic expertise in AI, together with international capital markets experience.

This ASX announcement is authorized by the Board of SenSen.
