ASX RELEASE

COLLINS FOODS LIMITED – COVID-19 UPDATE

Monday, 16 March 2020: Collins Foods Limited (ASX: CKF) provides the following update in relation to COVID-19 (coronavirus).

In responding to coronavirus, the Dutch Government has announced overnight that, amongst other measurements, all restaurants must close immediately until 6 April. As a result, Collins Foods' KFC restaurants in the Netherlands will not be able to operate as normal. The Government has yet to announce whether restaurants can continue to trade through channels such as delivery and/or drive through. Further information is expected within the next 24-48 hours.

By way of update, Collins Foods confirms that its KFC Deagon restaurant in Queensland has reopened following the implementation of a deep clean and clearance for our employees to return to work.

The situation is moving quickly, and Collins Foods will keep the market informed accordingly.

The health and wellbeing of Collins Foods' team members and customers is the Company's number one priority, especially in these uncertain times. Management is working closely with the Government and health bodies in the various jurisdictions we operate in and following their guidelines. Collins Foods will continue to implement all measures to ensure the safety of its employees and customers.
