NEWS RELEASE

AngloGold Ashanti Provides Update on Argentina Operations

(PRESS RELEASE) – AngloGold Ashanti provides an update on its operations in Argentina given the recent countrywide restrictions on travel and border closings to the end of this month.

There are no COVID-19 cases at the Cerro Vanguardia mine, the company's only operation in Argentina, and which is set to account for about 6% of this year's production.

Cerro Vanguardia will be required to suspend mining activities during the period of these current restrictions, which are scheduled to last to the end of March. Safety and environmental monitoring activities will continue. Plans are being developed to help regain delayed production once mining operations resume.

This situation related to COVID-19 is evolving rapidly and the Company will continue to assess developments as they occur.

Background

AngloGold Ashanti remains in a state of high-alert and preparedness to deal with the global challenge presented by the COVID-19 outbreak. The company has created heightened awareness around the COVID-19 virus and steps to prevent its spread, stepped up screening and surveillance of employees, banned non-essential travel, instituted clear self-quarantine measures where applicable and increased hygiene awareness and facilities across its operations, in addition to a range of other measures taken to mitigate the risks presented by the virus.

Authorised for release to the ASX by Maria Sanz Perez, Executive Vice President – Legal, Commercial and Governance & Company Secretary.

AngloGold Ashanti has a multi-disciplinary COVID-19 taskforce directing the company's global response to the crisis, with input from its health, operational, travel, human resources, community relations, finance and supply teams, among others. Each office and site have emergency preparedness plans in place, developed in line with national protocols and plans. The first aim is to protect employees, their families and our host communities.

The worldwide outbreak has thus far not impacted AngloGold Ashanti's production. The company is, however, constantly monitoring the situation as it unfolds, all the time remaining in close contact with authorities in each country and with our key suppliers and other business partners, to help ensure business continuity and mitigate any interruptions that may occur. The company is also working with community groups and local authorities, to understand where it can provide support to healthcare systems as they gear up to manage the pandemic.
