Shine Justice Ltd (SHJ)
Mesh Class Action Costs Order Update

In November 2019, Shine Justice Ltd (SHJ) (formerly Shine Corporate Ltd) announced the decision of the Federal Court of Australia in favour of Kathryn Gill, Diane Dawson and Ann Sanders (Applicants) in the class action against Ethicon Sàrl, Ethicon, Inc. and Johnson & Johnson Medical Pty Limited (Respondents).

The Applicants' claims were successful and the Respondents were found liable in negligence and for breaches of the Trade Practices Act 1974 (Cth) and the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth).

On 3 March 2020, the Federal Court ordered that the Respondents pay the Applicants' costs, with the basis of assessment of those costs yet to be determined.

On 25 May 2020, the Federal Court ordered that the applicants' costs be fixed in a lump sum. The question of what proportion of those costs should be paid on an indemnity basis will be determined in the coming months once the Applicants and the Respondents have lodged submissions.

We will update the market with any further material information.
