

Monash Absolute Investment Company Limited

29 May 2020

Monash Absolute Investment Company Limited (ASX Code: MA1)
Webinar Invitation – Monash Investors Investment Performance Update

Following on from our recent Monash Investors performance update webinar, and given continued market volatility, we will be holding another Investment Performance Update to keep you informed of your investment in MA1. The Monash Investors team has continued to be very active during this recent period, having entered into a number of short positions during March, which have now been closed, adjusted weights on the largest holdings, including completely selling of some positions, whilst entering into some new stocks that have been on watch for some time, which the team have been able to purchase at low prices.

During the webinar Simon Shields and Shane Fitzgerald from Monash Investors will cover the following topics,

1. Update on performance through April and May
2. Update on key changes to the portfolio
3. New stock case study : Jumbo Interactive
4. Outlook on key positions and markets
