- have a Registered Address in Australia or New Zealand or are a Shareholder that Adavale has otherwise determined (in its absolute discretion) is eligible to participate in the Offer; and

Shareholders who are not Eligible Shareholders, will not be entitled to participate in the Offer or to subscribe for New Shares.

3.3 Shortfall Offer

Eligible Shareholders, who apply for their full Entitlement, may apply for New Shares in excess of their Entitlement (Additional Shares), provided that the issue of those Additional Shares will not result in a breach of the Listing Rules or any applicable law.

Any Additional Shares will be limited to the extent that there are sufficient New Shares available after satisfying all Applications received from Eligible Shareholders pursuant to the Entitlement Offer (i.e. there is a shortfall between the number of New Shares applied for under the Entitlement Offer and the total number of New Shares offered to Eligible Shareholders under the Entitlement Offer).

The Board has an absolute discretion in regards to the allocation of Additional Shares. Please note that no Additional Shares will be issued to a holder where the effect of issuing Additional Shares will result in the applicant's, or another person's, Voting Power in Adavale increasing from 20% or below to more than 20% or from a starting point that is above 20% and below 90%.

Adavale's decision as to the number of Additional Shares to be allocated to you will be final and binding. If scaling back occurs, Application Monies in relation to Additional Shares applied for but not issued will be refunded by cheque to your registered address as noted on Adavale's share register as soon as possible following the Closing Date, without interest.

Eligible Shareholders who wish to apply for Additional Shares should insert the number of Additional Shares that they want to apply for in the appropriate Section of the Entitlement and Acceptance Form or otherwise following the instructions in that form if paying via BPAY®. Any Additional Shares that are applied for must be paid for at the same time, and in the same way, that the New Shares to be issued pursuant to the acceptance of Entitlements are paid for.

There is no guarantee that Eligible Shareholders will receive any or all of the Additional Shares they apply for. New Shares, including Additional Shares issued under the Shortfall Offer will rank equally with Adavale's existing Shares.

The Directors reserve the right to issue any Additional Shares not taken up by Shareholders in the Entitlement Offer and the Shortfall Offer through a share placement to third parties who are sophisticated investors no later than 3 months after the Closing Date at an issue price not less than $0.01 per New Shares.

3.4 Rights Trading

Trading in rights to the New Shares will occur on the ASX from 11 August, 2020 to 19 August, 2020.

3.5 Dealing with your Entitlement

You may apply for New Shares in respect of all or some of your Entitlement, sell some or all of your Entitlement (subject to the availability of buyers), or do nothing. The Entitlements will trade on the ASX during the rights trading period under a separate ASX code "ADDR". If you wish to sell all or part of your Entitlement during the rights trading period you should contact your broker or other professional advisor during that period. Should you wish to purchase additional rights to New Shares during the rights trading period, please contact your broker or other professional advisor.

To accept all or part of your Entitlement your completed Entitlement and Acceptance Forms must be lodged with ADD's Share Registry (whose address will be on the Form) by 5.00pm AEST and payment made for your New Shares and any Additional Shares either through BPAY® in accordance with the instructions on the Entitlement and Acceptance Form or by on or before the Closing Date.

To transfer your Entitlement to another person, you should complete a standard renunciation form (obtainable from your broker or other professional advisor or the Share Registry) and send it with the Entitlement and Acceptance Form to the Share Registry by 5.00pm AEST on or before the Closing Date.

If during the rights trading period you buy additional rights, including through an online broker or by off-market transfer, please contact the Share Registry, obtain an acceptance form, and send the completed form, cheque and a copy of the contract note to AUI's Share Registry by 5.00pm AEST on or before the Closing Date.

3.6 Use of Funds

Completion of the Offer will result in an increase in cash at hand of up to approximately AUD$1,711,944 (before the payment of the costs associated with the Offer and outstanding creditors).

Adavale intends to apply the funds raised under the Offer to repay creditors including outstanding directors' fees of $52,800 and payment of interest on the convertible notes of $254,011 with the balance used to fund Adavale's ongoing working capital requirements of Adavale including carrying out exploration work on Adavale's tenements in Tanzania and South Australia.

The above is a statement of the Board's current intentions as at the date of this Offer Booklet. However, Shareholders should note that, as with any budget, the allocation of funds set out above may change depending on a number of factors, including the outcome of operational and development activities, regulatory developments, market and general economic conditions and environmental factors. In light of this, the Board reserves the right to alter the way the funds are applied.

3.7 CHESS

Adavale participates in the Clearing House Electronic Sub-register System, known as CHESS. ASX Settlement Pty Ltd ACN 008 504 532 (ASTC), a wholly owned subsidiary of ASX, operates CHESS in accordance with the Listing Rules and ASTC Settlement Rules.

Under CHESS, Applicants will not receive a certificate but will receive a statement of their holding of New Shares.

If you are registered in the Issuer Sponsored Sub-register, your statement will be despatched by Computershare Investor Services Pty Limited and will contain the number of New Shares issued to you under this Offer Booklet and your security holder reference number.

A CHESS statement or Issuer Sponsored statement will routinely be sent to Shareholders at the end of any calendar month during which the balance of their holding changes. Shareholders may request a statement at any other time; however, there may be a charge associated with the provision of this service.

3.8 Capital structure

The principal effect of the Offer will be to increase the total number of Shares and to increase the cash reserves by up to $1,711,944 (before deducting the costs of the Offer and payment of outstanding creditors).

The following table shows the capital structure of Adavale before and after completion of the Offer¹:

Shares	Number
Shares on issue at the date of this Offer Booklet	171,194,340
Maximum number of New Shares to be issued under the Offer ¹	171,194,340
Maximum number of Shares on issue following the Offer	342,388,680

3.9 Impact of the Offer on your Shareholding and Possible Dilutive Effect

The dilutionary effect the Offer on your shareholding will depend on whether you are an Eligible Shareholder and if so, whether you elect to subscribe for some or all of your Entitlement. If Eligible Shareholders take up all of their entitlements under the Offer, Eligible Shareholders will hold the same percentage interest in Adavale as they did immediately prior to completion of the Offer.

However, to the extent that any Shareholder fails to take up their full Entitlement to New Shares under the Offer, and Ineligible Foreign Shareholders are unable to participate in the Offer, that Shareholder's percentage holding in Adavale will be diluted.

3.10 Effect of Offer on Voting Power in Adavale

No nominee has been appointed for Ineligible Shareholders under section 615 of the Corporations Act and, as such, Eligible Shareholders will not be able to rely on the exception for rights issues in Item 10 of Section 611 of the Corporations Act. Accordingly, when an Eligible Shareholder applies for some or all of their Entitlement, they must have regard to section 606 of the Corporations Act.

Eligible Shareholders who may be at risk of exceeding the 20% Voting Power threshold in section 606 as a result of acceptance of their Entitlement or subscribing for Additional Shares pursuant to the Shortfall Offer should seek professional advice before completing and returning the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

3.13 Risks

There are various risks associated with investing in Adavale, as with any stock market investment, and, specifically, because of the nature of Adavale's advertising business. Many of those risk factors are outside the control of Adavale.

¹ Assuming no employee incentive scheme shares are allocated prior to completion of the Offer

3.14 Issue and dispatch

New Shares issued pursuant to this Offer Booklet will be issued in accordance with the ASX Listing Rules and the indicative timetable set out on page 7 of this Offer Booklet.

Pending the issue of New Shares or the payment of refunds pursuant to this Offer Booklet, all Application Monies will be held in trust for the relevant applicants in a separate bank account as required by the Corporations Act. Adavale will, however, be entitled to retain all interest that accrues on the bank account and each applicant of New Shares waives the right to claim interest by completing and returning the Entitlement and Acceptance Form or making payment by BPAY.

The expected dates for the issue of New Shares offered by this Offer Booklet and dispatch of holding statements is expected to occur on the dates specified in the indicative timetable set out on page 7 of this Offer Booklet. It is the responsibility of applicants for New Shares to determine the allocation prior to trading in the New Shares. Applicants who sell New Shares before they receive their holding statements will do so at their own risk.

3.15 Taxation Matters

It should not be inferred or implied that Adavale, Directors or its officers, purport to give Shareholders advice regarding the taxation consequences of subscribing for New Shares under this Offer Booklet. Adavale, its advisers and its Directors and officers do not accept any responsibility or liability for any such taxation consequences to Eligible Shareholders. Eligible Shareholders should consult their professional tax adviser in connection with the tax consequences of subscribing for any New Shares under this Offer Booklet.

3.16 Continuous Disclosure

Adavale is a “disclosing entity” under the Corporations Act and is subject to regular reporting and disclosure obligations under the Corporations Act and the ASX Listing Rules, including the preparation of annual reports and half yearly reports.

Adavale is required to notify ASX of information about specific events and matters as they arise for the purposes of ASX making that information available to the stock markets conducted by ASX. In particular, Adavale has an obligation under the ASX Listing Rules (subject to certain exceptions) to notify ASX immediately of any information of which it is or becomes aware which a reasonable person would expect to have a material effect on the price or value of Adavale Shares. That information is available to the public from ASX.

This Offer Booklet is intended to be read in conjunction with the publicly available information in relation to Adavale which has been notified to ASX and does not include information that would be included in a disclosure document or which investors ought to have regard to in deciding whether to subscribe for New Shares. All announcements made by Adavale are available from its website www.adavaleresources.com or the ASX at www.asx.com.au (Adavale ASX Code: ADD).

3.17 Ineligible Foreign Shareholders

Ineligible Foreign Shareholders are not entitled to participate in the Entitlement Offer.

The restrictions upon eligibility to participate in the Entitlement Offer arise because Adavale has determined, pursuant to ASX Listing Rule 7.7.1(a) and section 9A(3)(a) of the Corporations Act, that it would be unreasonable to make the Offer to Shareholders with Registered Addresses that are outside Australia or New Zealand, having regard to the number of Shareholders and the costs in complying with the legal and regulatory requirements in those jurisdictions (“Ineligible Foreign Shareholders”). This decision has been made after taking into account the relatively small number of Shareholders in the jurisdictions in which the Ineligible Foreign Shareholders are located, the relatively small number and value of New Shares to which those Shareholders would otherwise be entitled to subscribe for and the potential costs of complying with legal and regulatory requirements in the jurisdictions in which the Ineligible Foreign Shareholders are located.

Adavale, in its absolute discretion, may extend the Entitlement Offer to any Shareholder if it is satisfied that the Entitlement Offer may be made to the Shareholder in compliance with all applicable laws. Adavale may determine whether a Shareholder is an Eligible Shareholder or an Ineligible Foreign Shareholder. To the maximum extent permitted by law, Adavale disclaims all liability in respect of such determination.

Subject to certain exceptions in respect of certain foreign jurisdictions, Adavale has determined. No action has been taken to register or qualify the New Shares or the Offer or otherwise to permit an offering of New Shares in any jurisdiction outside Australia and New Zealand. Accordingly, this Offer Booklet and Entitlement and Acceptance Forms will not be sent to Shareholders who have a Registered Addresses outside of Australia or New Zealand.

In compliance with ASX Listing Rule 7.7.1:

- Adavale has decided that it is unreasonable to make the offer to holders who do not have registered addresses in Australia or New Zealand (“Ineligible Foreign Shareholders”) having regard to each of the number of holders in the place where the offer would be made and the number and value of securities the holders would be offered and the cost of complying with the legal requirements, and requirements of a regulatory authority, in the foreign jurisdiction;
- Adavale will send each holder to whom it will not offer the New Shares, details of the issue and advice that Adavale will not offer securities to the holder.
- Adavale will appoint a nominee to arrange for the sale of the entitlements that would have been given to those holders and to account to them for the net proceeds of the sale.
- Adavale hereby advises each Ineligible Foreign Shareholder not given the Entitlements that a nominee in Australia will arrange for sale of the entitlements and, if they are sold, for the net proceeds to be sent to the holder.

The distribution of this Offer Booklet and the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form outside of Australia or New Zealand may be restricted by law and persons who come into possession of this Offer Booklet and the accompanying Entitlement and Acceptance Form should seek advice on and observe those restrictions.

Any failure to comply with those restrictions may constitute a violation of applicable securities laws. Adavale reserves the right to treat as invalid any Entitlement and Acceptance Form which does not comply with the requirements of this Offer Booklet or the Entitlement and Acceptance Form or which Adavale believes has been sent for, or on the account of, an Ineligible Foreign Shareholder or a person not entitled to participate in the Offer.

Foreign exchange control restrictions or restrictions on remitting funds from your country to Australia may apply. Your Application for New Shares is subject to all requisite authorities and clearances being obtained for Adavale to lawfully receive your Application Monies.

3.18 ASX Quotation

Adavale will apply to ASX for quotation of the New Shares on ASX. If ASX does not grant official quotation of the New Shares, Adavale will not issue any New Shares and all Application Money will be refunded, without interest. Adavale disclaims all liability (to the maximum extent permitted by law) to persons who trade New Shares before the New Shares are listed on the Official List of ASX or receiving their confirmation of issue, whether on the basis of confirmation of the allocation provided by Adavale or the Share Registry.

3.19 Enquiries

If you have any questions, please contact Adavale using contact details provided in the Corporate Directory during the Offer period. If you are in any doubt as to whether you should participate in the Offer you should consult your stockbroker, accountant, solicitor or other professional adviser.

- Your BPAY® payment must be received by no later than 5.00pm (AEST) on the Closing Date. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure that funds submitted through BPAY® are received by this time.
- For payment by BPAY® you do not need to submit your Entitlement and Acceptance Form but, by making a payment through BPAY®, you will be taken to have made the declarations set out in the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

Eligible Shareholders must not forward cash by mail. Receipts for payment will not be issued.

If you receive more than one personalised Entitlement and Acceptance Form, please only use the Reference Number specific to the Entitlement on that form. If you inadvertently use the same Reference Number for more than one of your Entitlements, you will be deemed to have applied only for your Entitlements to which that Reference Number applies.

Adavale is not required to determine whether or not any registered holder is acting as a nominee or the identity or residence of any beneficial owners of Shares. 4.11 Risks

Eligible Retail Shareholders should be aware that an investment in Adavale involves risks. The key risks identified by Adavale are set out in Section 5 of this Offer Booklet.

5. Risk Factors

5.1 Introduction

The New Shares offered under this Offer Booklet should be considered speculative because of the nature of Adavale's business. There are numerous risk factors involved with Adavale's business. Some of these risks can be mitigated by the use of safeguards and appropriate systems and controls, but some are outside the control of Adavale and cannot be mitigated. Accordingly, an investment in Adavale carries no guarantee with respect to the payment of dividends, return of capital or price at which securities will trade.

The following is a summary of some of the more material matters to be considered. However, this summary is not exhaustive and potential investors should examine the contents of this Offer Booklet in its entirety and consult their professional advisors before deciding whether to apply for the New Shares.

5.2 Industry and Company Specific Risks

The business of Adavale is mineral exploration in Tanzania and South Australia.

Mineral exploration and development is a speculative business, characterised by a number of significant uncertainties, these include failure to locate or identify mineral deposits, failure to achieve predicted grades in exploration or mining, operational and technical difficulties encountered in mining, difficulties in commissioning and operating plant and equipment, mechanical failure or plant breakdown, unanticipated metallurgical problems which may affect extraction costs, adverse weather conditions, industrial and environmental accidents, industrial disputes and unexpected shortages or increases in the costs of consumables, spare parts, plant and equipment, fire explosions and other incidents beyond the control of Adavale.

For example, unprofitable efforts may result not only from the failure to discover mineral deposits but also from finding mineral deposits that are insufficient in quantity and/or quality to return a profit from production. Even deposits that could be sufficient to provide a profit from production are not guaranteed to do so because management of the mining operation may fail to perform adequately. The marketability of minerals acquired or discovered by Adavale may be affected by numerous factors which are beyond Adavale's control and which cannot be accurately predicted, such as market fluctuations, the proximity and capacity of mining facilities, mineral markets and processing equipment, and other factors such as government regulations, including regulations relating to royalties, allowable production, importing and exporting of minerals and metals, and environmental protection, a combination of which may result in Adavale not receiving an adequate return on invested capital.

Adavale's operations are subject to all of the hazards and risks normally incidental to the exploration, of minerals. This may include personal injury or deaths, damage to property, environmental damage and possible legal liability.

As some of Adavale's mineral exploration operations are based in Tanzania, the operations are subject to sovereign risk such as varying degrees of political and economic stability, crime, instability, crime, labour union industrial action, wage inflation, extreme fluctuations in currency exchange rates and inflation, all of which are beyond its control.

Changes, if any, in mining or investment policies, or shifts in political attitude in Tanzania may adversely affect Adavale's operations or its future profitability. Operations may be adversely affected to varying degrees by government regulations with respect to restrictions on production, price controls, export controls, currency remittance, income taxes, expropriation of property, foreign investment, maintenance of claims, environmental legislation, land use, land claims of local people, water use and mine safety, among other things.

5.3 Entitlement Offer Specific Risks

The completion of the Entitlement Offer will result in the issue of 171,194,340 New Shares. If an Eligible Shareholder does not take up their full Entitlement their percentage holding of Shares will be diluted. Examples of how dilution may impact on Shareholders are set out in section 3.8.

5.4 General investment risks

- (a) Economic Risk: Factors such as economic outlook, inflation, currency fluctuation, interest rates, demand, global geo-political events and hostilities and industrial disruption have an impact on operating costs, oil and gas prices and share market conditions. Adavale's future possible profitability and the market price of Adavale Shares can be affected by these factors which are beyond the control of its Directors.
- (b) Investing in Shares: Once the New Shares are quoted on the ASX, their price may rise or fall and they may trade at prices below or above the Issue Price. There also can be no assurance that the New Shares will be traded actively. In common with other listed entities, Adavale's Shares can be affected by factors that are unrelated to the operating performance or underlying value of Adavale, such as domestic and international economic conditions. These fluctuations may adversely affect the price of Adavale's Shares, including the New Shares once issued.
- (c) General economic conditions: Adavale's operation and financial performance is affected by general economic business conditions including inflation levels, interest rates, exchange rates, government fiscal and monetary policies, and changing healthcare policy and medical reimbursement in the jurisdictions in which Adavale operates. A sustained decline in general economic condition, such as an increase in interest rates, could be expected to have a material adverse effect on Adavale's operation and financial standing.
- (d) Accounting standards: Australian accounting standards are set by the Australian Accounting Standards Board (AASB) and are therefore outside the Directors' and Adavale's control. Changes to accounting standards issued by the AASB could materially adversely affect the way in which Adavale's financial performance is perceived by the market.
- (e) Taxation risks: Changes to tax law in Australia, New Zealand or other jurisdictions in which Adavale and its Shareholders operate may affect Adavale and its Shareholders. Personal tax liabilities are the responsibility of each individual investor and Adavale has no responsibility for taxation or taxation penalties incurred by its Shareholders.
- (f) Equity market conditions: Securities listed on the stock market can experience extreme price and volume fluctuations that are unrelated to the operating performances of such companies. The market price of Shares may fall as well as rise and may be subject to varied and unpredictable influences on the market for equities in general. General factors that may affect the market price of Shares include economic conditions in both Australia and internationally (particularly Australian, US and Chinese economic conditions), investor sentiment, local and international share market conditions, changes in interest rates and the rate of inflation, variations in commodity prices, the global security situation and the possibility of terrorist disturbances, changes to government regulation, policy or legislation, changes which may occur to the taxation of companies as a result of changes in Australian and foreign taxation laws, changes to the system of dividend imputation in Australia, and changes in exchange rates.

- (g) Business factors: The continuing economic viability of Adavale will be dependent on managing risk factors normally found in conducting a business, including management of contractual risks, litigation due to breach of agreements or in relation to employees (through personal injuries, industrial matters or otherwise), strikes, lockouts, loss of services of key management or operational personnel or change in tax and accounting laws. There can be no assurance that parties with whom Adavale has entered into commercial arrangements will adhere to the terms of the contracts and arrangements. There is the potential of material failure by or insolvency of any contractor used by Adavale in any of its activities. Such being the case, this could cause disruption to the operations of Adavale. Adavale is unable to predict the risk of insolvency or other managerial failure by any of its contractors or other service providers used by Adavale. All of the mentioned business factors could have a material adverse effect on the results of the operations or the financial condition of Adavale.

6. Additional Information

This Offer Booklet and the Entitlement and Acceptance Form ("Information") have been prepared by Adavale.

You should read this Information carefully and in its entirety before deciding to invest in New Shares. In particular you should consider the risk factors referred to in the "Risk Factors" Section 5 of this Offer Booklet that could affect the performance of Adavale or the value of an investment in Adavale.

The past performance of Adavale, and the past Share price of Adavale should not be relied upon as this is not an indication of future performance.

6.1 Nominees and Custodians

Nominees and custodians (which hold Shares) should consider carefully the contents of this Offer Booklet and note in particular that the Offer is not available to Ineligible Foreign Shareholders.

Adavale is not required to determine whether or not any Shareholder is acting as a nominee or the identity or residence of any beneficial owners of Shares or Entitlements. Where any nominee or custodian is acting on behalf of a foreign person, that holder, in dealing with its beneficiary, will need to assess whether indirect participation by the beneficiary in the Offer is compatible with applicable foreign laws. Adavale is not able to advise on foreign laws. Nominees and custodians may not distribute any part of this Offer Booklet in the United States or in any other country outside Australia and New Zealand, except to beneficial shareholders who are institutional investors in other countries listed in, and to the extent permitted under Section 1.1 of this Offer Booklet.

6.2 Rights issue exception not available

No nominee has been appointed for Ineligible Shareholders under section 615 of the Corporations Act and, as such, Eligible Shareholders will not be able to rely on the exception for rights issues in Item 10 of Section 611 of the Corporations Act. Accordingly, when an Eligible Shareholder applies for some or all of their Entitlement, they must have regard to section 606 of the Corporations Act. Eligible Shareholders who may be at risk of exceeding the 20% Voting Power threshold in section 606 as a result of acceptance of their Entitlement or subscribing for Additional Shares pursuant to the Shortfall Offer should seek professional advice before completing and returning the Entitlement and Acceptance Form.

6.3 Litigation

Adavale is not subject to any litigation at the present time.

6.4 No Cooling-Off Rights

Cooling-off rights do not apply to an investment in New Shares. You cannot, in most circumstances, withdraw your application once it has been accepted.

6.5 No underwriting

The Entitlement Offer is not being underwritten.

6.6 Disclaimer and Forward-Looking Statements

The words "anticipate", "believe", "except", "project", "forecast", "estimate", "likely", "intend", "should", "could", "may", "target", "plan" and other similar expressions are intended to identify forward-looking statements.
