

FOR RELEASE : 21 SEPTEMBER 2020

Senior Management Appointments

Magnis Energy Technologies Limited (“Magnis”, or the “Company”) [ASX: MNS] is pleased to announce that the Company has recently made senior management appointments strengthening its team with their key skills as a focus towards advancing all projects both locally and overseas.

Rod Chittenden

Project Director – Nachu Graphite Project

Rod has 40 years of experience in the minerals industry across Africa, Australia and South America, both in executive management roles and metallurgical project development roles from exploration to production.

Rod has largely resided in Africa for more than a decade and was CEO for Magnis when the Nachu Graphite Project was discovered, spearheading initial geological and metallurgical programs. Rod also played a key role in the commissioning of Paladin Energy’s [ASX:PDN] Langer Heinrich and Kayelekera projects. Prior to that Rod has worked for major miners including Newcrest [ASX:NCM] and Barrick Gold [NYSE:GOLD]. Rod is currently a non-executive director of ASX listed company, Adavale Resources Limited [ASX:ADD].

Jack Robertson

Strategic Manager, Batteries [Part-time]

Jack possesses over three decades of experience working in government and private enterprises locally and overseas. He has a broad range of experiences and skillsets in the technical, regulatory, political, marketplace expansion, advocacy and public relations fields. He has occupied roles in corporate marketing, public grants management, transport and infrastructure.

Currently, Jack also works with a Sydney-based registered lobbying firm providing political and corporate advocacy to major national and international clients, and as a Special Projects researcher for a multi-stakeholder engagement not-for-profit with a strategic focus on the fast-evolving 'smart city' future of the Western Sydney Airport and Aerotropolis. Jack holds a Bachelor of Science Degree and recently published a public policy paper on Energy and Utilities Transition in Western Sydney.

Magnis Chairman Frank Poullas commented: "It's exciting to have both Rod and Jack on board. Rod was previously CEO of the Company when Nachu was first discovered and Country Manager in Tanzania for many years and knows the Nachu project and our team in Tanzania intimately."

"Jack will be working closely with the Hon Troy Grant as they look to progress a number of local initiatives with state and federal governments in respect of lithium-ion battery initiatives."
