ACN 154 103 607

ASX/Media Release

Sydney, Australia – 27th October 2020

Quarterly Activities Report

Indoor Skydive Australia Group Limited (ASX:IDZ) (ISA Group) is pleased to provide its Quarterly Activities Report and Appendix 4C for the quarter ending 30 September 2020.

The company experienced a strong quarter in wind tunnel sales due to the re-opening of both facilities in late June. The Virtual Reality business also continued to perform above management expectations throughout the quarter and, despite Queensland border closures, FREAK Gold Coast launched on the 5th September. The company also commenced preparation for FREAK Bondi Junction during the period.

Wind Tunnel Activities

Post COVID closures, the company has experienced pleasing results in flight sales at both iFLY Gold Coast and iFLY Downunder in Western Sydney. After the implementation of the updated booking platform, direct ecommerce bookings are contributing c. 50% of all sales confirming the success of the new digital marketing strategy.

Customer service improvements continue with updated systems throughout the call centre and our Frequent Flyer program, Flight Club.

Virtual Reality Activities

FREAK Penrith has continued to perform well throughout the quarter with a new experience launched in September and a busy school holiday period in early July and late September. FREAK Gold Coast launched on the 5th of September and has experienced a similar take up as the Penrith site. Both sites continue to offer the home delivery service.

FREAK Bondi Junction is on track to open in mid-November with site fitout, equipment purchase and training well underway.

The new FREAK booking system will go live in October allowing for rapid expansion and standardised systems across the VR division.

Cashflow Analysis

Strong sales since re-opening have ensured that the Company is cashflow positive for the quarter after generating cash receipts from customers of $1.544m. Our senior financier remains supportive and discussions are continuing around a long term solution to the balance sheet position. Likewise our trade creditors have been supportive throughout the COVID closure, with landlords and other creditors giving us relief or extended payment terms where possible. With the positive receipts from customers we continue to make significant progress in paying down these debts.
